

Aerodynamic Air Turbine Engine Renews 21st Century Industrial Revolution

The Solution To The Energy Crisis In This Country Has Finally Arrived!
A Source of Energy that will End Wars and End Fossil Fuel Burning is at Hand!

Exclusive to The American's Bulletin

“Aerodynamic Air Turbine Engine - The End of Fossil Fuel Burning - The Beginning of a Renewed Industrial Revolution for the 21st Century” was the title to the National Press Release dated November 3, 2006 in regards to the new redesigned Air Turbine Engine Technology, as sent out to over 50 local and national news agencies and newspapers and the engine was the purpose of a trip to Washington, D.C. by the scientist/inventor Ron Rockwell and his cohort Dr. Bob Beverly.

The trip was akin to the ‘yellow brick road’ with the hopes of success in acquiring the funding from the Federal Wizard. The Wizard of course did not reveal himself, but audience was given to a lowly Federal Agency Representative of the Department of Energy, who evidently was brain dead or merely following orders. However....

What you are about to read is absolutely the answer to the question that America and the world at large has been seeking for decades; a clean and efficient energy source. A source of energy that will abolish our dependence on foreign oil and any oil for that matter. A source of energy that will end wars, create a peace in war stricken oil rich areas as never before seen, while providing more economic security across the globe. What you are about to read is history being made. It is of the utmost urgency that this ‘engine’, this miracle of technology be brought to market now. We must stop depleting our natural resources, as most people agree, and take hold of this historic and revolutionary opportunity immediately.

The solution to the energy crisis we face in this country has finally arrived. It is found in the Aerodynamic Air Turbine Engine (AAT Engine) presented by Ron Rockwell, a scientist, inventor and engineer. The AAT Engine is truly the most innovative, groundbreaking discovery of the 21st century. The name may sound complex, but the AAT Engine actually runs and operates using only ambient air – the very air we breathe. Skepticism often follows as a first reaction to any new and innovative technology or discovery. This is why the creators of this clean energy solution have produced live video of the engine in operation.

The inventor and engineer of the ATT Engine is Ron Rockwell, a researcher and gifted scientist since 1955. Mr. Rockwell and Dr. Bob Beverly have twice appeared on the Lou Epton Show, nationwide radio program broadcast out of Las Vegas, Nevada, (which since then has been terminated, as believed... due to this topic!) to discuss the ATT Engine and its unlimited uses.

Ron Rockwell and Dr. Bob Beverly were recently in Washington, DC and met with the Department of Energy in hopes that they would embrace this unprecedented technology. Unfortunately, Ron Rockwell and Dr. Beverly were met with bureaucratic indifference. The two ‘agents’ of the Department of Energy they met with immediately said that the funding was an issue. Funding? The end of oil dependency as this world knows it and a truly clean energy source that is proven to work, and they say that funding is an issue? This is a deplorable disgrace and a shame to every American and to the world at large!

But if that was not a kick in the face, the United States Department of Energy’s Secretary Bodman announced a $2 Billion Dollar Federal Loan Guarantee Program as part of his First Anniversary Celebration of the Energy Policy Act, according to the August 7, 2006 press release on the Department of Energy’s own website! The press release states, “U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) Secretary Samuel W. Bodman today unveiled DOE program guidelines for a total of $2 Billion in loan guarantees to help spur investment in projects that employ new energy technologies.” “With

Federal Judge Rules Bush’s Post-Sept. 11 Terror Order Unconstitutional

November 29, 2006
By the Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — A federal judge struck down President Bush’s authority to designate groups as terrorists, saying his post-Sept. 11 executive order was unconstitutional and vague.

Some parts of the Sept. 24, 2001 order tagging 27 groups and individuals as “specially designated global terrorists” were too vague and could impinge on First Amendment rights of free association, U.S. District Judge Audrey Collins said.

The order gave the president “unfettered discretion” to label groups without giving them a way to challenge the designations, she said in a Nov. 21 ruling that was made public Tuesday.

The judge, who two years ago invalidated portions of the U.S. Patriot Act, rejected several sections of Bush’s Executive Order 13224 and enjoined the government from blocking the assets of two foreign groups. However, she let stand sections that would penalize those who provide “services” to designated terrorist groups.

She said such services would include the humanitarian aid and rights training proposed by the plaintiffs.

The ruling was praised by David Cole, a lawyer for the Washington, D.C.-based Center for Constitutional Rights, who represented the plaintiff Humanitarian Law Project.

It “says that even in fighting terrorism the president cannot be given a blank check to blacklist anyone he considers a bad guy or a bad group and you can’t imply guilt by association,” Cole said.

He said the Humanitarian Law Project will appeal those portions of the executive order which were allowed to stand.

A U.S. Department of Justice spokesman had a mixed reaction to the judge’s ruling.

“We are pleased the court rejected many of the constitutional arguments raised by the plaintiffs, including their challenge to the government’s ban on providing services to terrorist organizations,” Justice spokesman Charles Miller said Tuesday. “However, we believe the court erred in finding that certain other aspects of the executive order were unconstitutional.”

The judge’s ruling was a reversal of her own tentative findings last July in which she indicated she would uphold wide powers asserted by Bush under an anti-terror financing law. She delayed her ruling then to allow more legal briefs to be filed.

The long-running litigation has centered on two groups, the Liberation Tigers, which seeks a separate homeland for the Tamil people in Sri Lanka, and Partiya Karkeran Kurdistan, a political organization representing the interests of Kurds in Turkey.

Both groups have been designated by the United States as foreign terrorist organizations.

The judge’s 45-page ruling granted in part and denied in part a legal challenge brought by the Humanitarian Law Project, which seeks to provide training to the groups in human rights advocacy and provide them with humanitarian aid.

AMERICAN POLICE WILL ENFORCE THE ‘NEW WORLD ORDER’

Maynard Brazeal, the retired Director of the Kansas Law Enforcement Training Center told me privately in 1980, that the moral character of the men and women he was preparing for a career in law enforcement would determine if America remained free or would be under police state conditions. Mr. Brazeal is one of those few exceptionally talented men who knew police work well and also knows that society’s thin line between jungle rule and ordered society is but one riot away from catastrophe. Maynard was to become a very close personal friend who was admired by thousands of Kansas Peace Officers, state and federal agency heads, and politicians two numerous to count. His word was his absolute bond and when he said, “buddy, I’ll stand by you,” he meant with his life, if necessary.

Maynard was a Lieutenant for the Kansas City, Missouri, police department. He wrote the first organized riot control manual in the United States, and was involved in the great Paseo shootout that left several police officers and several more crime figures dead or wounded on Kansas City’s south-east side. Maynard was a fearless defender of society and of the men and later women he personally stood in front of and gave his extensive lifetime of experience to train. His training methods were straight forward, true to life, and absolutely left no room for ethical lapses in judgment. Maynard was a real life John Wayne in size, courage but most importantly heart. He stood by me as I fought to contain an old lawless town in Kansas, where I served as marshal after leaving the State Troopers. We stood by each other as we both endured the untimely deaths of our precious wives.

Maynard Brazeal is a legend. To Kansas Peace Officers and indeed police officers across America, he is still called on to assist in the defense of those who are on trial for split second actions that requires years of court reflection to sort out. He is a gifted public speaker, a Christian gentleman, and a very talented baritone vocalist who loves old Gospel quartet music. We have sung together many times and as Maynard would say; there are a few of us old timers “whose metal has been tested severely in the fires set by the most evil among us.” We each came through and now in the later years of our lives, Maynard has written in his own hand to me, “remember Greg, you would be a good man to walk the river with.” This saying, first uttered by a Border Patrol agent many years ago, is the final test of how brave men huddle together to share their lives. “Talk low, talk slow, and don’t talk too much,” is the unspoken rule among men who took lawful orders, used constitutional justice as their guide, and knew when to do the right thing the humane thing, the compassionate thing, when it was

OPEN LETTER TO AGENTS OF THE CROWN

An Open Letter to BAR Attorneys with apologies to Patrick J. Fitzgerald, an American hero.

We the People are getting mighty educated these days. We tracked down the original 13th Amendment to the Constitution - you know, the one you started the War of 1812 over so you could burn the copies - and it says you Esquires are not allowed to have a title of nobility AND hold public office in America. Up until now, you have been getting away with it.

We learned that the BAR originates in the Crown Temple in London, England. Therefore, your oath to the BAR means you are not Americans anymore but agents for a foreign power. You have no citizenship. You claim to have licenses to practice law. As a matter of fact there is no such thing as a license to practice law. We searched in the statutes, codes, rules and regulations for every state and also their respective secretaries of state and supreme courts. No authorization for the "license to practice law" exists anywhere. That means every one of you is unauthorized and illegal in the Republic. JOHN HENRY DOE, ESQUIRE is a fiction that exists only on paper.

What you do have is a BAR card that simply authorizes you to use the statutes, codes, rules and regulations, which are all copyrighted. We can't help but notice that all of the law you use is copyrighted, so the People can't use it without using you. People, how well are you doing with these copyrighted statutes?

It wasn't easy since you have us hanging upside down looking in the mirror trying to read the newspaper, but we figured out that statutes, codes, rules and regulations are not law but abrogations of the law. Abrogate means "to abolish by authoritative action: ANNUL". Applying the force of deadly violence, you annulled the real Law and replaced it with color of law. Color of law is a false flag, a pirate flag. You're all a bunch of actors. No license, and no law, either.

We counted the number of statutes, codes, rules and regulations that you created, with the intelligence endowed by your Creator, to use against us. There are many more than 60 million statutes, codes, rules and regulations, certainly more than all of you BAR attorneys put together can keep track of without plenty of software, quarterly updates, and teams of legal researchers - and, voila! You have billing!

You write statutes, codes, rules and regulations at the behest of the putrefyingly corrupt Chosen Masters, the ancient hate-driven cult within a hate-driven racist sect that are the tiresome take-over-the-world crowd and the blueprint for criminality. The beasts of this world have more honor than you. You herd the People you have defrauded into the system of the Matrix like so much cattle, to be processed, robbed of their freedom, families and property, experimented upon with drug sorcery, and all too often killed.

You do this because the BAR Association is a hate-driven money cult. Your masters reward you with obscene hourly rates for the building of your personal empires. You are so far gone from the sight of God that you think you have the authority to write rules to justify torturing your fellow beings. You have much blood on your hands.

And your "noble cause" is what? Why, the U.S. bankruptcy is your noble cause, your reason for destroying millions of lives minute by minute. The U.S. bankruptcy is George W. Bush's noble cause. Claiming the authority to enact and enforce new "bankruptcy laws" (statutes) that create debtor's prisons for the People, who since 1933 have had no money to pay a debt with, the U.S. corporation is itself bankrupt and has made us into the surety for the debt.

In fact all so-called governing bodies in the U.S. are bankrupt corporations telescoping from one to the other, back and forth between federal-state-county-municipal, due to the Federal Project of Credit. The SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA is a bankrupt corporation and does not exist. Your law firm is bankrupt. There is no money. We have no law because we have no money.

Whether or whether not you BAR attorneys swore a secret oath to administer the U.S. bankruptcy, the bankruptcy is in each and every letter you send, every form you submit, every court pleading you file, every plea bargain you negotiate. It is a fact of your every professional thought, besides billing. "Law" has nothing to do with it.

At this point you attorneys have made your true function patently obvious. "Attorning" means to take all of the property of the People and give it to the Chosen Masters. Well, your masters' day is over. Oh, it may seem that they are consolidating their control of all the Earth, therefore assuring your positions as their agents for profit and mayhem; but always profit; but we continue to expose the Chosen Masters in this forum and many others, and we are getting quite ready to jam their signals, crash their programs and round them up. Guess where we are going to put the Chosen Masters!

You are being destroyed by leaks from within. From the 13 European families of banking perversion to the Every-town, USA municipal traffic court judge (who would not be caught dead retiring with less than $30 million of the People's money) and all the Satanist racketeering extortionist blackmailing pedophile warmongering purveyors of human flesh in between, the Chosen Masters are finished.

Some of you attorneys may be hearing the jungle drums and growing uneasy, but most of you are 100% in your ego at all times and proud of being arrogant. Your arrogance may interfere with your understanding of this message, but check it out, because now it is your turn to "understand" something. The jig is up. The truth herein is ugly, but we believe Americans are very angry about the truth to date and that they are ready to hear more. Many will even act on it according to their conscience.

Just when we thought your deeds could not possibly get more hideous, we discovered that you create commercial paper for each inmate in prison and put a price on him and hypothecate that price many times. Correctional Corporation of America (Nashville, Tennessee) creates the bonds, and Lehman Brothers underwrites those bonds for being bought and sold on the world financial markets. The Chosen Masters cut you in on the deals and you all take profits from this. We are enraged to know that U.S. corporations are being funded by our brothers and sisters who were busted for pot or for not having a current drivers license. You BAR attorneys created crimes out of nothing and wrote the rules for this heinous and sickening theft of the People's energy, all for administering the U.S. bankruptcy and your own unjust enrichment. We the People, the ones in whom the power is truly vested, are putting an end to your trafficking in human flesh and spirit.

We used to have common law courts in this country. In common law, unless a living being has been injured or property loss has occurred, there has been no crime. We also found out that you BAR attorneys raised the level of the Sea on paper so that it "covers" the land, thereby fraudulently subjecting us to admiralty/maritime law, to the Law of the Sea, to piracy. A cop pulling us over is an act of piracy. It is a kidnapping. That's a pirate flag he's flying, so cops reading this take heed, for the Chosen Masters put you where the rubber meets the road. Get this through your heads now: codes do not apply to the People, only to the corporation for which they were written, and that means you, and it means you are nothing more than corporate thugs. Some of you became cops in order to get respect. But we have been giving you not respect but fear, and people can overcome their fears. We have a God-given right to defend ourselves and our property. Just keep it up, and the survivors of you cops will yourselves become defendants.

The Chosen Masters have decreed that there are too many of us, so you BAR attorneys make it "legal" on paper for vile toadies of the Chosen Masters to poison us and the entire Earth through the food, air, water, and land, and when we sicken, to force dangerous drugs upon us, and when we die, our former employers receive death benefits$$$$$ on secret, illegal life insurance policies on us, unjustly enriching a variety of corporations so that the Chosen Masters may take profits. You (and the cops) will answer to the People in the lawful courts we establish and you must answer to your families, friends, neighbors and all whom you sold out and sold. Just about everyone - except Freemasons of course - has been to traffic court nowadays. What did you think was going to happen?

You BAR attorneys are the original back-door men, the ones in the back room, failing to adjust the accounts. You never pay your bills. Once you take a case you are the holder of the account for the case. This means, under Public Law 73-10 wherein all crimes are commercial crimes, and under Public Policy, that you must adjust the account to offset the liability for closure and settlement. You always fail to make the ledger entry - there is NO money and the People are exempt from levy - so you attorneys never pay your bills. You impose the charges upon us and put us in prison instead.

You get paid whether you "win" your case or not, and the judicial system enforces the payment of your fees. This is conclusive proof of the criminality inherent in the U.S. judicial system. What else is a criminal but someone in possession of a valuable commodity - human energy - that was acquired without exchanging something else of value for it?

Well, it is painfully obvious to the People that those are not our courts and we will never get justice in them. We are going to do away with them and you. Don't look now, but persons in positions of authority are going to seize the reins. Even now we are turning the tide for a permanent return to a constitutional form of government. The People will no longer tolerate the lies, the corruption and death that are your daily bread.

You BAR attorneys are all drunkards drunk on debt, chasing Federal Reserve Notes which are debt notes and debt (death). You have made it illegal for the People to get out of debt! You put every man, woman and child under the probate statutes and made us into corporate fictions so you could create life-destroying industries such as taxation and the judicial system. You attorneys are harming the entire world, and you cannot make it more clear that you are Anti-Life. Through trickery and the deceitful use of language, you would reduce our lives to nothing more than a series of commercial transactions. We who now must pursue such life-diminishing goals as "getting out of debt" or "making the rent" or "paying the bills" - we demand that the BAR stand down and stand aside, now, and make way for the true Law. For starters, the People are exempt from levy. In common law there are only two laws: do not harm another living being, and honor all of your contracts. But then there is really only one Law: do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

Speaking of "personal debt", we learned from our research that the People, the living men and women of this land and all the lands, are the source of all pretend money; i.e., "credit"; i.e., "commercial credit". So-called credit does not exist until We create it. We living Beings of Light are the source of all the energy that is expressed as "credit". Thus, the People can never be debtors, and you attorneys have slandered our names in your collection letters. We will make claims against you for the slander of your deceit, so EXPERIAN, TRANS UNION, EQUIFAX, take note. Your BAR attorneys will not be able to save you. EXPERIAN, TRANS UNION and EQUIFAX are bankrupt corporations. Yes, People?, in this the Bizarro world the credit reporting agencies are insolvent.

We recently heard that the authorities will start to confiscate our gold fillings and gold teeth. (This is for paying interest on the U.S. bankruptcy, folks.) Attention municipal, county, state, federal, United Nations Chosen Masters/Powers in Charge: We will not tolerate it. We denounce your obscenely unjust and unlawful codes and refuse to obey them. We hereby declare your illegal statutes, codes, rules and regulations to be null and void and of no further effect. You can take my drivers license and shove it!

You are parasites. You create no value. You bring nothing to the table. All of the invisible so-called contracts by which you think you have us in a chokehold are null and void for lack of consideration, lack of full disclosure, for threats, duress and coercion in the formation of the contracts, and for being unconscionable. You ain't got nothin'!

We the People demand forgiveness of all the debt. We demand the restoration of money of substance, backed by gold and silver. We demand our money back for all the illegal income tax on our labor that you converted (stole and gave to a foreign corporation; i.e., the Federal Reserve's collection agency INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE - also a bankrupt corporation). We demand the return of all the money you defrauded us out of for your cash cow Social Security Ponzi scheme. We demand our money back for all of those bull##### illegal parking tickets and illegal court cases. Inasmuch as those funds are collected by corporate thugs and therefore illegal, the funds cannot be added to municipal budget so therefore the People's property goes straight into the judge's retirement fund. We demand that you make reparations to us for having defrauded and enslaved us.

We demand the immediate stand-down of INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE. Further, once INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE has returned to us every penny plus interest, we demand the permanent abolishment of INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE. Then we shall sue our corporate employers for theft (Form W-4 and wage levies).

We learned that our real government is in the county. In the Republic, where all of our rights are intact, our highest elected official is the county sheriff. We will restore lawful government first at home, in our counties. Generals and Provost Marshals, duty calls like never before, and we are taking names. Do your duty and put the county sheriffs under arrest, or we will!

We will open the prison doors and send home everyone busted for pot and every other innocent victim of your unlawful codes. They will go home with all of their property restored to them plus reparations and public apologies. A goodly portion of those reparations will come from your pocket, Mr. BAR Attorney. We will return back to the prisons all of the real criminals routinely set loose into our communities by the pedophilic treasonous "authorities", and many, many of you BAR attorneys will join them for your crimes. Judges merit a special note. Municipal traffic court, bankruptcy court, probate court, federal court, makes no difference, you are the most venal and rapacious type of creature imaginable. We have awakened to the real state of affairs: that we live in the Bizarro world. Thus it should come as no surprise that the man in the black dress, supposedly learned in the "law", is in reality an extortionist, a career criminal, the most unlawful creature on Earth. The judge's bench ("bank") is a moveable feast, his black robes highly appropriate for a bird of carrion. You are all in breach of the Covenant, in breach of the Trust, in breach of the Contract. In your souls and in commerce, you are in dishonor. Your rights are forfeit and your property is forfeit - trust or no trust. We the People who are Beings of Light are taking responsibility and taking over. We are creating a world without parasites. Even as you read this we are ... phasing you out. You cannot turn back this tide. Members of the BAR, here are your choices: Come into the Light, or go into the Light. You very dark ones face uncreation or the Hell planet. You will not be missed.

P.S. for the People: BAR Attorneys passed a very sneaky law in 1980 that says they represent both sides in a case! But it is a felony for an attorney to take money from someone he does not represent. So if an attorney bothers you, tell him he's fired! Enjoy!

Congressman: American Concentration Camps “On The Books”

Texas Representative urges repeal of neo-fascist laws in America before it is too late

Steve Watson
Infowars.net

November 13, 2006

Re-elected Texas Republican Congressman Ron Paul joined Alex Jones on air last week to discuss the fallout of the midterm elections and what he sees transpiring over the next two years. He ended by ominously warning that if something is not done soon to overturn legislation such as the Military Commissions act, the law officially allows for citizen concentration camp facilities.

Beginning with the positives to come out of the election, Ron Paul stressed that it has provided an important indication to the rest of the world that the people of America are unhappy with the usurpers that have seized control of their government and are trying to initiate change. The Congressman was quick to point out that this may not be carried into policy however:

“Not a whole lot will change because the leadership on the Democratic side, even if they had their way, don’t have a different foreign policy. They have been supportive of an interventionist foreign policy in the middle east, and they are not about to back away from that... They are willing to criticize the policy but only as a means to get power.”

As we have seen over the past week, leading Democrats are all towing the party line, unreservedly dismissing any notion of the possibility of impeaching the President over Iraq.

The Congressman also stated that monetary policy will stay the same, which can only mean bad news for the American economy.

“They all believe in the federal reserve, they are not going to get rid of the IRS and the income tax. I think the dollar is going to keep sliding, which means prices are going to rise, when currencies self destruct, the end goes quickly. There are no signs that there is anything being done in care not about preserving and protecting American sovereignty when there is a quick buck to be made.

“That’s also part of the foreign policy to be in position to hold onto natural resources, that’s one of the major reasons why we’re in the middle east, so yes if there is a financial crisis, they’re going to have the guns, and they have control of the natural resources... It’s not a good scenario, because Washington to correct the problem. Spending is going to continue and probably going to get worse, the deficits are going to stay high if foreign policy is not going to change.”

The Congressman agreed that the elite globalists within the US government may not care about this too much because it means they can blow out the economy and then come back and buy it up very cheaply. These Internationalists what usually happens when you wipe out a currency is that you wipe out the middle class, and we already see this happening. The standard of living is going down.” Paul asserted.

Ron Paul’s comments echo those of Former World Bank Vice President, Chief Economist and Nobel Prize winner Joseph Stiglitz, who two weeks ago predicted a global economic crash within 24 months - unless the current downturn is successfully managed. Asked if the situation was being properly handled Stiglitz emphatically responded “no,” and also drew ominous parallels to the development of the NAFTA Superhighway and the North American Union.

What real Conservatism there was left in the House, to block such moves, as well as Bush’s amnesty program for illegals, is gone. With Pelosi at the helm Ron Paul sees it as a forgone conclusion that such policies will sail through.

“I think that’s right, although I complain about the two parties being exactly alike, I would say on this amnesty issue and what’s happened with the election, there probably was a difference between the two. It is more likely with the Democrats in charge, and Judiciary and the other major committees, and with the President not really fighting for our national borders, he’s always argued for some type of worker program, yes I think there’s a much greater danger that that is going to be coming in the next session.”

Commenting on strategies to defeat the North American Union, the Congressman urged a continuance of educating people on the real issues and reaching more and more Americans who care about preserving their national sovereignty:

“You have to keep doing what you are doing, you are reaching a lot of people, and they have to get to their members of congress, and in many ways the current House has been pretty good with this. With the new House we don’t know exactly what is going to happen, but I had something very encouraging come to my attention just this week. I had a call from a young lady that won in Kansas as a Democrat, and in her literature she put my whole article on the NAFTA super corridor in there...”

She is not going to vote with Nancy Pelosi.”

Finally, and perhaps most importantly, The Congressman spoke on the issue of going about demanding a repeal of freedom crushing legislation such as the Patriot act and the Military Commissions act and the Defense

Congressman Ron Paul, TX.

Authorization Act which essentially wipes out Habeas Corpus. “We might have to hope that our Supreme Court helps us out a little. The Court has been better than the executive branch and a heck of a lot better than the Congress, because we’ve given the President everything he’s asked for and the President has been begging for all this authority, so immediately we have to hope that the courts will save us on some of these things. But once again ultimately its only when the people wake up and say they don’t like this... sometimes the people wake up to late. Right now we don’t have concentration camps, but like you have pointed out, the authority has been given so that concentration camps can come without Habeas Corpus. I have heard the argument that there is nothing else left in the Bill of Rights. If they can lock you up, what good is freedom of speech or what good is a gun? That is now part of the books, part of the law.”

Take Ron Paul’s suggestion up and contact your new or re-elected members and demand a move to repeal legislation paving the way for fascist government control in America today.

My name is Edgar J. Steele.
This is a Nickel Rant.

Every politician and pundit has tried to explain why the Republicans lost big. They all are wrong. Now, for the first time, hear the truth. How can all of them be wrong?

Ever wonder why movie critics promote dreary, boring movies filled with plot twists and convoluted language, while regular guys like straightforward action flicks and the average woman is drawn to heart-rending romantic dramas brim full of domestic strife?

Movie critics don’t have lives, that’s why. They spend all their time watching movies and searching for deep meanings upon which to comment. They are out of touch and incapable of wanting what the rest of us want when we decide to watch a movie. Critics probably started out okay, as pure fans, but a steady diet of anything will change one’s taste (“refining it” is the way they would describe the process, of course). Too close to the trees to see the forest, in other words.

Even more out of touch are the movie studio bosses, who fancy themselves as opinion molders, in any event, with their own expectations shaped from wishful thinking born of the lust for money and power. They should ask newspaper publishers and television network owners, hopelessly out to lunch and claiming befuddlement at the rapid decline of their own audiences, just how that attitude is working out for them!

The same rationale applies to the radio/TV talking heads now pontificating upon why the Republicans took a shellacking in the mid-term elections. Pat Buchanan and others opine that Republicans lost because their party lost touch with its core conservative values. Liberal commentators consider it an awakening and revalidation of leftist thinking.

Politicians seem the most out of touch with the message delivered by America’s electorate, with some considering it a mandate for Clintonesque government and others a simple repudiation of war done wrong.

Well, listen up, you morons, particularly those of you in Congress, both coming and going, because I am going to tell you, in plain language and without subtle innuendo, exactly what it is that voters said this past week.

None of you has a mandate for anything. Not one. Had each elected position on last week’s ballot carried an option marked “leave this job vacant for the entire term,” a much larger number of you now would be seeking new employment than you possibly can imagine.

Very few of you actually are wanted in your position. You newly elected are there simply because we wanted to deliver a message to all of you, not because you somehow are better in our eyes. Those of you heading out the door are leaving for the same reason. Make no mistake about this fact and get over yourselves. Are you listening, incoming House Speaker Nancy Pelosi? Get over yourself and do it now. Our patience with Congressional hubris and incompetence has grown exceedingly thin.

Here’s the message: We are fed up with your bullshit. Let me repeat that in words of one syllable for those of you unaccustomed to listening to your constituents: We are fed up with your bull shit. Admit it - you know the truth when you hear it and this is truth at its simplest and most fundamental level.

This has nothing to do with being Democrat or Republican. Neither do conservative nor liberal values figure into the equation. You are not blameless simply because Bush has proven so frightfully bad at being President. After all, you made possible every single thing that he has done. You were our trump card - our safety net - and you let us down!

Free Eddie Kahn

Update from Kookie Kahn
From The Lighthouse <thelight@alltel.net

It is important for me to let you know how very important you are in Eddie's and my life. I thank each of you from the bottom of my heart for all the help and support in prayer, in actions, and monetarily that you have assisted in since our nightmare in Panama began.

On Oct. 31, 2006 Panamanian Immigration Officials (instructed by the FBI), kidnapped Eddie off the streets as he approached his attorney's office to meet with her and a reporter who said he wanted Eddie's side of the story regarding the Wesley Snipes case. What a coincidence that they knew where Eddie was going and why especially since phone tapping is illegal in Panama.

Timing was such that apparently the FBI felt they had to stop Eddie before the media got the TRUTH about Wesley's tax return. I am told Eddie's office had over 100 people in 32 states filing amended returns and they were receiving funds back. It was only when Wesley filed his that the big flag was waved. Why? If it was not legal and acceptable, the IRS would not have allowed ANY monies back to ANYONE. These forms also had attached a statement saying that IF for ANY reason they were unacceptable or deniable, then please contact the client for an administrative hearing. This is the proper legal procedure. WHERE'S THE CRIME? To my knowledge the IRS did NOT send any money back to Wesley and the IRS did NOT schedule an administrative hearing... what they DID do was file CRIMINAL CHARGES against Wesley Snipes, Eddie Kahn, Presiding Overseer of Guiding Light of God Ministries and Manager of American Rights Litigators, and Douglas Rosile, the gentleman who prepared the return.

When Wesley Snipes decided to file using the 861 argument he stood to receive a lot more money than most people would. Rather than address the issue, the IRS and Dept. of Justice (DOJ) just wrote "fabricated" press releases so the media could have a heyday.

People "hear" on the TV, and "read" in the paper that it is a scam or fraud or whatever other negative connotation they choose to call it. It would be simple enough if even one reporter would look at the 861 statute, and "show the law".....but instead they let the IRS and DOJ press releases think for them. What kind of investigative reporting is that?

Congratulations to those of you who actually checked it out, and did not take the media's word for it! You are one in a million. In fact, the IRS is counting that most of the people will be crippled by FEAR and conform to the threats, rather than ask to see the law itself. If it was not allowed or illegal, the IRS would not allow it for anyone!

It is our experience and belief that the 4 letter word FEAR is crippling the American public without their awareness or true knowledge of what is happening. It reminds me of the story about a frog in the pot on a stove and how he will cook to death because he is unaware that the heat is getting hotter, when he could have been saved by simply jumping out of the pot.....so long as he did it in time. Welcome to what is currently happening in America.

Remember Willie Nelson?... Red Fox?... well now it is time for Wesley Snipes. Eddie is just the fall guy this time around. The IRS always needs a poster boy for the upcoming tax season. Wesley is the perfect target... he's a black man... good looking black man... a wealthy good looking black man, and a celebrity to boot! Eddie did to ultimately judge them, that we are all held accountable for our actions, and we know that unfortunately, their actions are a witness to their children showing their true character. As sad as this is, for us, we remain faithful to the ONE who matters. We have already forgiven them for what they are doing to us, but we are ultimately not the one they are accountable to. What Eddie will do is continue to stand in TRUTH wearing the full Armour of God. That is what he has been called to do... this is the Lord's battle, not Eddie's. He will do his part a private seminar a few years ago in Wesley's California home. Eddie explained to Wesley that he admired Wesley's interest in the Tax Honesty Movement, and reminded Wesley that if the IRS ever came down on him that he had a lot to lose. Wesley discussed with Eddie the fact that he himself had studied the documentation of the law, and believed Eddie to be right. He also said he wanted to proceed because this was not about money but his decision was based on principal. He wanted to stand up for truth.

We have no idea what Wesley will do or say. He has not been in touch with the people working to free Eddie thus far. From what we saw in Wesley he appeared to be an honorable, deep thinking and intelligent guy who believes in and stands up for truth. Will he turn against Eddie now and just try to make a deal with the beast? You never know what someone will do when their back is to the wall and they are threatened with years of incarceration. This is Wesley's and Wesley's decision alone. He was given the information, studied it himself, agreed that the truth was there, and he asked to proceed having full knowledge that the IRS does not play fair and could make his life a living hell.

From what we understand there are others who have supposedly turned against Eddie and made "deals" with the government to be prosecuting witnesses. It happens all the time. We know these individuals know the truth. They know that we will not be the one no matter what anyone else does or how it will affect his outcome. I will do my part in supporting him.....no matter what. We have other good friends in this fight who continue to stand for TRUTH and are currently being harassed. It is only because of people like this who are willing to give their lives for this cause that America has any freedoms to begin with. This country is losing their freedoms right and left because there are few people willing to fight.

The night of the kidnapping Eddie stayed in the Ancon jail. I was allowed to see him for 5 minutes with our attorney present. The chief at the police station shook my hand, looked me in the eye, and assured me that they had no plans to deport him the next day and that I could rest well that night. The FBI put Eddie on a plane the following morning! They had no warrants, no proper paperwork, and the entire drama was totally illegal. An unnamed immigration worker said that this was the most corrupt incident she had ever seen happen in the Panamanian Immigration Office. Furthermore this illegal act was carried out against the Panama Supreme Courts orders.

Eddie's attorney was threatened by David Wattley from he FBI, that if she continued to help her client that he would see that her US Visa was revoked and that he would cause other problems for her intimidating jail time, fines or both. Sandra, his attorney was upset as were other attorneys in Panama that their profession was being compromised and that greasy palms in a slew of events could even persuade Immigration officials to ignore the highest court decision of their country. Due to this series of events, I was asked by the attorneys and several people in Panama to make a statement on the news. David Wattley advised our attorney that for my own safety I might not want to do that.

As soon as the media frenzy with Wesley Snipes hit the streets, Panamanian Immigration did the research and called our attorney to let us know that our Pensionado Visa papers were all in order, done correctly, and as far as they were concerned, Eddie had nothing to worry about. We chose Panama as our place of residence after the IRS and FBI raided and shut down the Guiding Light of God Ministries Office in 2002. As some of our close friends in Panama say....."It's time to live in Freedom instead of continuing to fight for it."

After Eddie was taken he was interviewed by Ricardo Julio Vargas, Director of Immigration, (who incidentally happens to be up for a promotion). Mr. Vargas questioned Eddie about any other problems he might have with the US Government. Eddie told him that after we came to Panama over 2 1/2 years ago that apparently there was a hearing scheduled and a notice sent out to him which he never got. Not knowing about it, and subsequently not attending, the judge held him in contempt of court (a civil matter). Eddie said "YES, I have this issue." What did Ricardo Vargas do with this information? He reported that Eddie said NO... no other issues with the US Government. This lie is what immigration (instructed by the FBI???) used to build the story that Eddie Kahn was a liar. The news casts that night all talked about how Eddie lied to them when questioned about other issues with the government, how he lied to get a false Pensionado Visa, and how he will lie about anything. The expat community knew Eddie as a strong Christian believer and Eddie was often the one to offer prayers when gathering for meals, etc. The news capitalized on Eddie's principles and furthered their story to produce a fabricated story that Eddie was a liar by interviewing a gentleman who was a member of the First Baptist Church of Balboa.

What the MEDIA has not disclosed about the Snipes/IRS case:

A former Florida policeman (now in jail in Ocala, Florida) is the force behind the Wesley Snipes/IRS issue. As a policeman, Eddie Kahn (pronounced "CAIN") researched issues exposing fraud in government. He uncovered facts about the Internal Revenue Service -- facts truthful beyond controversy. As an advisor to Wesley Snipes, Kahn influenced Snipes to study these issues. Snipes phoned me and said his application for refund brought no response from the IRS -- no rejection: no refunds. According to the e-mail below from Mrs. Kahn received today, each filing with the IRS was sent with a statement of willingness to sit down with the IRS and discuss the claims being made. No such administrative hearing was ever held. Instead, the IRS unlawfully is inflicting misery and torture on well-intentioned, patriotic people, whose ONLY INTEREST is honesty and integrity in government.

Meanwhile, the FBI (pledged to uphold the law), has through its agent David Wattley broken US and Panamanian law by kidnapping Kahn from Panama, violating extradition laws. The urgently important background story is told in the unedited, untouched e-mail from Mrs. Kahn, below.

I am sending this out to media contacts, to attorneys, and to my local sheriff. If you care about the future of our nation, if individual liberty means anything to you -- you need to read carefully every word written by Mrs. Kahn. Then, forward this to your friends. Responsible people take responsible actions.

THE DEFINITION OF IRRESPONSIBILITY IS THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE.

In my 75 years of life, I have never observed any IRS agent to operate with intelligence, knowledge of the law or even a sense of psychologically appropriate behavior. The IRS continually shoots itself in the foot by using unlawful tactics to frighten people into unthinking cooperation with unlawful demands.

MYTHOLOGICAL LICENCE TO PRACTICE LAW

From Peter Dorsett

Every so-called State in the Union has laws on their books forbidding the unauthorized practice of their Law. This fact alone might lead one to conclude that being a licensed member of the legal professional is not only required, but that one not so duly appointed had better not even think about offering legal writings or advice without having a "license to practice law." To test this assumption, we go to California, the so-called Union's most populace so-called state, our test subject, to see how they do it, California style.

To begin this journey of discovery you can go online to the Secretary of State for California web site. All bona fide corporations public and private must be registered with the Secretary of State. Do a search for "California Bar Association" and notice several strange anomalies with the posted information. For one, while the incorporation date of record is listed as 1907, this date differs from the date on the seal of the letter head for the California Bar that lists an incorporation date of 1927. Now notice that the status of the California Bar is inactive. Also notice that there is no registered agent listed for service of process, nor is there a listing for the corporate address. Go to the Secretary of State web sites for the so-called states neighboring California and you will discover the same anomalies--listed but inactive, without contact information.

Now call the California Corporate Commission to discover if they can explain the so-called anomalies and they will advise you that the State Bar of California was formed by statute (legislative act), and therefore not formed in accordance with the California Corporation Code.

Next, call the Executive Director at the headquarters for the California Bar Association in San Francisco and ask the following three questions: 1. Why is the California Bar Association an inactive corporation? 2. What type of organization (legal classification) is the California State Bar Association? 3. Why does the incorporation date on the letter head seal differ from the date of incorporation listed with the California Corporation Commission?

While the Executive Director will not be able to clear up the mystery to any of the questions listed above, you will be assured that the State Bar of California is a constitutional agency, with the judicial branch of State government. It serves an administrative function for the California Supreme Court in matters relating to the regulation of the legal profession.

However, the California State

Constitution and the California Business & Professions code, does not agree with this claim—these two authorities describe the State Bar of California as a public corporation, not a 'constitutional agency.'

To complicate matters still, the California Secretary of State refuses to issue a "Certificate of Non filing," a five dollar ($5.00) fee, a standard form for any unregistered, non-filing public corporation. By claiming that the State Bar Corporation was created by legislative act, the Secretary of State can take the position that it lacks authority to issue the certificate, even though the State Bar Association actively touts itself to be a public corporation. In so doing the California Bar has effectively exempted itself from registration and shielded its books from public scrutiny. The following obscure cite from 7 Corpus Juris Secundum 9 reveals the deceit being perpetrated here: "In view of the decision that the creation of public corporation by special acts is prohibited by state constitution, state bar act creating state bar corporation as public corporation has no validity and designation of state bar as 'public corporation' has no legal efficacy." Bridgegroom v. State Bar, 550, P.2d 1089, 27 ArizApp. 47.

To further interpret what this means: the State Bar of California enjoys the best of both worlds; an apparent agency of government enjoying the power and protection of the state, including exemption from taxation, while in fact a pirate institution without legal basis.

Whereas, the notion of a "license to practice law" is scarcely mentioned in state and federal codes, the requirements relating to every other kind of license in existence is spelled out in mind-numbing detail (e.g. Vehicle Code, Internal Revenue Code, etc.). The sacred "license to practice law," however, remains undefined! Answers to questions regarding where it comes from, how it is conferred, where one goes to see what it looks like, its tenure, its cost, remain elusive like the wind. These and other intensely pertinent questions remain unanswered by the codes that imply its existence.

So pull up a chair and take a front row seat as we examine-what the word manipulating Esquires have done to convince us that such a thing 'really' exists. As always the subterfuge is in their definition of the words and what is conveniently omitted. It is up to you to guess which words are 'suspect,' which assumptions are implied to lead you off track, what remains unspecified, and where to go to find the appropriate 'definitions.'

Code Series 6000 of the California Business & Professions Code (Cal. B&P) is known as the

"The State Bar Act". Section 6002 is the solitary code section in all of California Code evidencing the supposed issuance of a "license to practice law." I will list out the relevant sections in Cal. B&P relating to the issuance of licensing and also section 9 of their California State Constitution. Look these over to see if you can tell where the clues are and note what questions to ask.

Cal. B&P Code Section 6001 - "The State Bar of California is a public corporation."

Cal. State Const., Sec. 9 - "The State Bar of California is a public corporation."

Cal. B&P Code Section 6002. - Members "The members of the State Bar are all persons admitted and licensed to practice law in this state..."

Cal. B&P Code Section 6125. - Necessity of Active Membership in State Bar "No person shall practice law in California unless the person is an active member of the State Bar"

Cal. B&P Code Section 6060 - "To be certified to the Supreme Court for admission and a "license to practice law", a person who has not been admitted to practice law in a sister state..."

Cal. B&P; Code Section 6060.5 - "Neither the board, nor any committee authorized by it, shall require that applications for admission to practice law in California pass different final bar examinations depending upon the manner or school in which they acquire their legal education."

Cal. B&P Code Section 6064 - "Upon certification by the examining committee that the applicant has fulfilled the requirements for admission to practice law, the Supreme Court may admit such applicant as an attorney at law in all the courts of this state and may direct an order to be entered upon its records to that effect A certificate of admission thereupon shall be given to the applicant by the clerk of the court."

Cal. B&P Code Section 6064.1. - "No person who advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force, violence, or other unconstitutional means, shall be certified to the Supreme Court for admission and a license to practice law."

Cal. B&P Code Section 6067. - "Every person on his admission shall take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California, and faithfully to discharge the duties of an attorney at law to the best of his knowledge and ability. A certificate of the oath shall be indorsed upon his license."

JURISDICTION

Sections 6002 and 6125, appears straight forward, until the jurisdictions are compared. The jurisdiction "California," means the de jure social compact known as the California Republic as described in the 1849 California Constitution. The jurisdiction " / this State," per California Revenue and Taxation Code, means the de facto military social construct defined as a federal territory via the Buck Act under military control of the United States located in the District of Columbia (See What is United States?).

PERSONS

Since the so-called bankruptcy in 1933, "/_/* this state" signifies the military federal social construct known as the "State of California," with its subject "citizens of the United States," artificial persons existing under statute in an artificial realm. In the de jure California, the word person means the flesh and blood man or woman. Thus 6002 says that only artificial persons (legal fictions) may be admitted and licensed. Real persons need not apply!

Since the de-jure social compact known as California no longer truly exists due to the fact the compact went out of legal existence in 1933, as a pledge to the military social government construct bankruptcy, 6125 is nonsensical; It makes about as much sense as stating "No person shall drive an 18-wheeler on interstate highways in California unless that person is a member of the Teamsters Union."

WHAT IS THE STATE BAR?

Another fatal flaw in both 6002 and 6125 according to Corpus Juris Secundum 9, listed above, and the Secretary of State, is that the State 'Bar itself has no legal existence in contradiction to Sec.9 of their California State Constitution and the California State Bar Act, 6001, state that the State Bar is a public corporation. The State Bar is a public corporation that is NOT, and the State Bar Act creating the State Bar has no legal efficiency.

BAR MEMBERSHIP

Cal. B&P Section 6002 informs us that "members of the State Bar are admitted and licensed to practice law." Admitted into what! And who does the licensing? Section 6002 is framed to satisfy the reader's perfunctory inquisitiveness, while remaining firmly ambiguous. Also, the reader of section 6002 may get the impression that Bar members are the only ones that may be "admitted and licensed to practice law in this state." However, because of the way Section 6002 is worded, non-members of the State Bar are not excluded from being "admitted and licensed to practice law in this State." In addition bar membership is a result of being admitted and licensed to practice law, whereupon the admitted party is then granted membership in the State Bar by a bar card-not the other way around.

"Generally, membership in a bar association is optional with the individual attorney, but where a unified or integrated state bar organization is established, membership and payment of dues may be required as conditions of practicing law in the state..." 7 Corpus Juris Secundum 8, In re Gibson, 4 P.2d 643.35 N.M. 550.

Though the controlled and licensed media and courts would have us believe otherwise, non-State Bar members are not excluded from being "licensed to practice law in this State."

Cal. B&P 6060, 6060.5 - reveal that the "license to practice law" follows (is one in the same) "admission to practice law," not membership in the bar-association. Section 6060 says that one may be certified to the so-called Supreme Court (admitted/licensed to practice law) even if they haven't been "admitted to practice law" (no bar-card) in another state.

An article in the Los Angeles Times entitled "Clinton Resigns from the High Court Bar" underscores this point: "...Former President Clinton hereby respectfully requests to resign from the bar Of this court", his lawyer, David E. Kendall, said in a two-page letter to the high court's clerk..." Clinton's resignation from the Supreme Court bar will have little practical impact. Clinton; has not practiced before the Supreme Court and was not expected to argue any cases in the future..."

Clinton resigned only from the Supreme Court bar, and from no other bar. Every other "license to practice law" is still in force and is just like the one issued in the so-called de facto State of California. The only possible license to practice law, the certificate of admission, is the real "license."

THE EXAMINING COMMITTEE

Cal. B&P Section 6064 gives provides additional evidence that bar membership doesn't confer a "license to practice law" Otherwise Cal. B&P 6002 would be sufficient in itself, with no further requirement that an examining committee must certify that an applicant "has fulfilled the requirements for admission to practice law" for being "licensed."

Regarding the true importance of the "examining committee" referenced above in Section 6064, the so-called chief justice of the Supreme Court can unilaterally overrule its decision and admit any applicant they see fit, even one who has been rejected as unfit or unqualified. As the following case cites show, "Admission to practice law" is ultimately controlled by the chief justice of the Supreme Court of the jurisdiction. In fact the chief justice is the Supreme Court.

"Supreme Court has inherent power and authority to admit an applicant to practice law in this State...despite unfavorable report upon such applicant by Board of Governors of State Bar." Lacey, In re (1936) 11 CA2d 699, 81P2D 935.

"The authority of the Committee of Bar Examiners is limited to investigating and recommending for admission those applicants found to be of the prescribed standards. Only the Supreme Court has plenary power to admit applicants who, in the opinion of the court, meet the prescribed test, whether or not the Committee agrees with the conclusions of the court." Green v. Zank (1984. 2dDist) CalApp 3d 497, 204 Cat Rptr 770.

SIGNIFICANCE OF STATE BAR

The State Bar of California does not issue licenses--cannot issue licenses--because it is a free-wheeling, private trade union posing as an agency of government. Quoting from a statement issued by Governor Pete Wilson's office in a May, 30 1998 article from the Los Angeles Times: "Beleaguered State Bar Faces Uncertain Fate - Agencies: It will begin going out of business as a result of Wilson veto unless Legislature acts quickly" "...Critics two years ago launched a referendum on whether to abolish the bar, but with just over half the state's lawyer's voting the bar survived. About 65% of the respondents opposed dismantling it. "The bar has escaped other brushes with death. In 1985, the Legislature

Politically Gagged: Religious Organizations’ Self-Inflicted Prohibition

THE CHURCH IS NOT UNDER ATTACK - THEY ARE UNDER CONTRACT

Tayra de la Caridad Antolick
© 2006

Dr. James Kennedy, senior pastor of Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, is gagged. Understandably, he and thousands of Citizens are gagging on the IRS’s prohibition on political free speech from the pulpit, considering our colonial political/religious history and heritage. In light of this prohibition, Dr. Kennedy has acquired over 60,000 signatures in support of The Houses of Worship Political Speech Protection Act, which is to restore freedom of political free speech to those who speak from the pulpit (<http://www.wallbuilders.com/resources/search/detail.php?ResourceID=66>).

His organization, Reclaiming America, has engaged in this campaign alleging that churches whose pastors endorse political candidates, engage in substantial political activity, and/or violate public policy will lose their tax-exempt status. This restriction came into being in July of 1954 when then Senator Lyndon B. Johnson introduced a bill to prohibit “political activity” by organizations, including churches, which enjoyed the state-granted privilege of tax-exempt status. There were no hearings, not debates, and the bill passed on a voice vote (<http://www.irs.gov/newsroom/article/0..id=161131.00.html>).

Dr. Kennedy believes that the IRS has “gagged” the churches: “Take the last presidential election. There were numbers of things that I knew that I was never able to say from the pulpit because if you advance the cause of one candidate or impede the cause of the other you can lose your tax-exemption. That would have been disastrous not only for the church, but for our school and our seminary, everything. So you are gagged.”

The fear of losing the tax-exempt status, however, may be unsubstantiated. The IRS has stated in several official publications that organizations such as churches, integrated auxiliaries of a church, and conventions have a mandatory exception from filing Form 1023, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, which notifies the Commissioner the intent to be an tax-exempt organization. IRS 2005 Publication 557 entitled Tax-Exempt Status for Your Organization states the exemption on page 18: Organizations Not Required To File Form 1023 “some organizations are not required to file Form 1023. These include: churches.” <http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p557.pdf>. Section 508 (3)(a) of the Code of Federal Regulations supports the publication, stating that churches and its integrated auxiliaries have mandatory exception from notifying the Commission of their intent. See http://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/html/uscode26/usc_sec_26_00000508----000-.html under the section “Exceptions, Mandatory Exceptions.”

If the fear arises from the potential loss of contributions to the church, IRS Publication 526 can dispel it. On page two, under the section “Organizations That Qualify To Receive Deductible Contributions,” the publication states that a person can deduct contributions to a charitable organization only if it is made to a qualified organization. However, churches do not have to apply to become a qualified organization.

The fear seems to be not so much that the churches are gagged from political free speech—the most highly protected form of speech—but rather that contributions may not be deductible for the contributors if the church is not formally recognized by the IRS. Potential contributors’ donations may be audited if the churches receiving the contributions have not established their status with the IRS by filing Form 1023. Page 25 of Publication 557 states, “Churches. Although a church, its integrated auxiliaries, or a convention or association of churches is not required to file Form 1023 to be exempt from federal income tax or to receive tax deductible contributions, the organization may find it advantageous to obtain recognition for exemption...” Also, on page 18, “If the organization wants to establish its exemption with the IRS and receive a ruling or determination letter recognizing its exempt status, it should file Form 1023. By establishing its exemption, potential contributors are assured by the IRS that contributions will be deductible” (emphasis added). If an organization files this form, the organization receives a determination letter establishing the status, thus protecting the contributors’ deductions on their income tax returns.

Once a group of religious people wants to incorporate to be recognized as a tax-exempted entity under federal laws, it knowingly, intentionally, and voluntarily submits itself to obey the contract, part of which curtails political free speech. If Dr. Kennedy is concerned with the effect the revocation of his organization’s tax-exempt status would have on his church, school, and seminary, then he should not have filed Form 1023 to establish its status. No group of religious people is legally compelled to file Form 1023 or to become a 501(c)(3) corporation. The only real threat is that contributions given to organizations not officially recognized by the IRS and posted on contributors’ 1040 forms may be questioned. Becoming a 501(c)(3) religious corporation subjects that legal entity to the rules of its contract; it is a creature of the state, a creation of the state, and it must abide by all the statutes connected with that corporation. Therefore, if any pastor wants to secure his contributions, filing Form 1023 is the way to go. This status is a privilege, however, and can infringe on rights otherwise possessed by men and women.

There is a misconception that creatures of the state have the exact rights as men and women. One of the contingencies on acquiring the 501(c)(3) privilege, which is really a contract, is an infringement on political free speech. The lawyers of any group desiring to receive a determination of status from the IRS knows or should know that the religious corporation does not have the same individual religious rights protected by the Bill of Rights and state constitutions. The “creator” of tax-exempt corporations has every right to “gag” its creatures if it wants to do so. Therefore, the real issue is not to “restore” freedom of political free speech to the religious organization, but rather, to change the terms of the contract that “gives birth” to the organization seeking a tax-exempt determination.

Is there hope for Dr. Kennedy and all other people wanting to receive limited liability by incorporating? Is incorporating really necessary or even biblically desirable? The present hope is that no one is compelled to file any form with the IRS to secure a tax-exempt status. The only thing that can protect the visions and hopes of religious groups is the degree of the integrity of their contributors and the IRS’s unquestioned recognition of their contributions. Jay Sekulow, Chief Counsel for American Center for

Law and Justice, however, believes that there is no jeopardy in coming in to contract with the IRS and that endorsing or opposing candidates is the only restriction.

In an email I received from Mr. Sekulow on Thursday, October 19, 2006 3:04 PM with the subject line “Equip your pastor with this vital information”, he states the following: “In direct response to my email, Americans United conceded that pastors do have the right to speak out on the moral and biblical issues of the day, even during election season.”

“To further clarify, the only thing pastors are prohibited from doing is endorsing or opposing candidates for public office (this prohibition does not apply to the pastor in their individual capacity).

Therefore, the distribution of non-partisan voter guides, the holding of political debates, and the preaching of moral issues are all allowed to take place within a church facility.”

Yes, pastors do have the right to speak out on the moral and biblical issues of the day, but, a qualifier for tax-exempt status recognized by the IRS is “[t]hat the practices and rituals associated with the organization’s religious belief or creed are not illegal or contrary to reclaimamerica.org/Pages/News/news.aspx?story=2918, accessed October 31, 2006.) The article ends by stating the following:

In many of these cases, the drive for “hate crimes” laws eventually trumped the freedoms of Christians to express their beliefs. If America does not learn from the experiences of these nations, she too will sacrifice more than 200 years of religious liberty on the altar of politically correct nonsense.

Mr. Sekulow is misleading American pastors in giving them incomplete information. The issue of endorsing or opposing candidates from the public is not the only “thing pastors are prohibited from doing.” They are prohibited from being discriminatory; they are prohibited from speaking about IRS (do an internet search on Indianapolis Baptist Temple); and they, and any member of their congregations, will be arrested for similar violations:

Tennessee: two men were arrested for carrying large wooden crosses during a “Gay Day” Parade. The men were charged with “interfering with a special event.” In Vermont, a family-owned inn is facing a state lawsuit after its Christian owners expressed a lack of interest in hosting a same-sex civil union ceremony. California has already enacted hate crimes legislation. (Ibid.)

If a pastor’s preaching encourages his congregation publicly to protest ungodly behavior, they, too, may be arrested.

Finally, one day on his radio show, Mr. Sekulow stated that the church was “under attack.” I called in and said that the church was not under attack; it was “under contract.” I read the information in Publication 557, to which he quickly responded by saying that I did not know that 501(c)(3) status was started by Senator Johnson, which I already knew but could not tell him since he muted my line. I could not defend his allegations about my knowledge or lack thereof; a few seconds later, I was disconnected. Public policy is mutant; it will reflect the social mandates of changing society. Since we are in the post-Christian era, we cannot expect that social mandates will reflect biblical values. The time has come when we believers will have to forget about the privileges of tax exemption and owning corporate property, and grow tighter and deeper in our personal relationship with each other; meet each other’s need from our own pockets; and congregate to worship our Adonai without any commercial privileges attached. It will be simple, but it won’t be easy. It’s time we put our faith where our beliefs are.

“If the Republican Party had released itself from the clutches of Wall Street and expanded the currency immediately after the Stock-market crash in 1929 or within a year after the crash, our people would have been saved from this awful money panic. Our President will doubtless ask amendments to this new law when conditions are more normal and when it is better understood. Under the new law the money is issued to the banks in return for Government obligations, bill of exchange, drafts, notes, trade acceptances, and banker’s acceptances. The money will be worth 100 cents on the dollar, because it is backed by the credit of the Nation. There is NO Constitutional Authority

By Rod Remelin
October 28, 2006

I was wondering today if the American people are really prepared to live within the originally casted Constitutional Framework; which by the way, no past generation has ever done since the formation of this country.

Before you decide whether or not you would like to try it, contemplate this:

1.) There is no Constitutional authority for any of the Federal Police or Regulatory Agencies now in existence. Which means that if they were all dissolved tomorrow, which they would be, at least 10 million people would be out of work; that figure being much higher when taking into account all of the additional parasite companies that service their host.

2.) There is no Constitutional authority for any standing army to be activated, except in the instance of an unprovoked attack on the contiguous land mass known as The United States of America, which has never officially happened. Not even the attack on Pearl Harbor by the Japanese was technically on American soil, as Hawaii had not yet been tricked into surrendering their sovereignty to International Jewish money interest until their official absorption into the fraudulent so called Reconstituted Abraham Lincoln Union, in 1959 ― well after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. Even if the United States of America were ever really attacked by a foreign entity, understandably necessitating a lawful reason for constituting needed organized resistance to repel such an invasion, after the threat had been neutralized, that standing Army could not be held together for more than 2 years after the fact.

United States Corporate imperialistic expansionism policies, having their birth during the Lincoln administration, under the Leiber Code, along with countless proclamation executive orders by all subsequent administrations, have continually managed to impose extra constitutional authority dictates not only on poor hapless eunuchs called U.S. Citizens, but on the rest of the world as well by an ever growing occupation of U.S. Military Police bases. Estimates are that if all four branches of our Military were dissolved that well over 30 million people would be out of work, absent any custodial surrogate caretaker to pick up their deeply ingrained dependency on eating at the public trough.

So where are we at this point, 40 million out of work, give or take one or two? Keep in mind folks that we are only just getting started here, we haven't even begun to dismantle the current Federal Mafia, and its accomplice agencies; consisting largely of the most incompetent work force since the dawn of mankind.

3.) There is no Constitutional authority for any Social services programs, meaning direct payment to the eunuchs via Social Security credits, Medicare, Food Stamps, HUD Housing, entitlement programs of every color and stripe, grants, ad-infinity.

Ok, where are we here now. . . 100 million people with no monthly check coming, no access to any Socialized health care, "which by the way would be a blessing for most grain fed eunuchs, as they would immediately be forced to take direct responsibility for their own health instead of surrendering it to a big-brother mind-control medical establishment, who is currently using them as lab rats in the largest DNA altering chemical experiment in history".

4.) There is no Constitutional authority for paper money, none... never had it and never will. Think about just this one huge violation of the Constitution for a moment, and think about the ramifications if you will of having to carry around gold and silver coins in your pocket in order to partially participate in acts of widespread commerce. It would mean no more inflation with strong potential for honest weights and measures, no banks as we have come to know them, no credit or debit cards, no arbitrary devaluation of your portable medium of worth could ever take place again. The ramifications of a lawful money are mind boggling to say the least.

5.) There is no Constitutional authority for any so called Bar Association, nor for any one in public service to have had, or having now, a title of nobility, which means that every lawyer and every judge, with maybe the exception of clerks and paralegals, would not be able to practice in Constitutionally approved courts. So how many black-robed, blood sucking vampires, with their attendant army of sycophant bar attorneys would be out of work? 10 million? Maybe more? The thought of just this one small ramification of having to live within the confines of a strict Constitutional framework might very well elicit more than just a passing sober moment.

With all of the aforementioned, do you really still want a lawfully organized working Constitutional government? I say that after being presented with the direct affects of dismantling almost every aspect of government, "as it has now become to be viewed and interacted with", that most will summarily reject the notion as being far too traumatizing for the most part, opting rather for the more preferential medicated-state, of a dependent nation, consisting largely of entitlement junkies, bedwetters, and whining crybabies.

Other than Maynard, it is hard to find men of such sterling character, brave and steady courage, and unshakeable, rock-solid beliefs. There is not one square inch of political correctness in men like this and thank God, they would never consider a favor done as a license to plunder later. Jim Schwiesow is a man in the molding of Maynard Brazel. As a former Iowa sheriff, Jim demonstrated his dedication to his county and to the people who entrusted him to serve them fairly and honestly. He never let them down. Jim, like Maynard is a hero to me, and I am honored to have shared personal correspondence with him. Read him carefully, he is a great authority on law enforcement past and present. He is a brave man of honor. Rick Shumard, Brian Berntson, John Daniels and my brother Jeff, are all such courageous, rock-solid men as well. There are many equally fine men and women in police ranks today; however, their command staffs are mostly politicians.

I set the stage in this article carefully, for what follows now will not be easy for me to say. I will suggest that you consider my view of our near term future. It is a future nearly upon us. It will test character, strength and the dispensation of street justice by police officers at all levels beyond anything Maynard, Jim or I have thus far experienced.

We are re-entering the "dark ages" as my neighbor Nancy Levant has stated. She is also a hero in this struggle to wake up Americans to our coming disaster. When the time comes to begin enforcing the decrees and the full agenda of the new world order, our friends in law enforcement will have a very tough set of choices to make. But make them they will. How and why I will explain to you. The results will either finish our destruction or deliver us from it because these men and women of character, knew how, when, and WHY to truly "serve and protect" the public.

THE RULE OF LAW MUST BE BASED UPON OUR CONSTITUTION

There exists in our nation and in each of our states, scores if not hundreds of "laws" that are not constitutional. They do not pass the benchmark set by John Jay, our first Chief Justice of the US Supreme Court." Any law that is repugnant to our constitution is no law at all." The outrageous expansion of the federal government during Lincoln's administration, Wilson's debacle, FDR's socialist regime, LBJ's criminal tenure, Nixon's demented presidency, and King George II's reign, are a few examples of executive power gone berserk. The Federal Reserve, income tax, social programs, wars without declaration, and regulatory agencies at every turn meant to corner Americans into submission by making business and manufacturing so difficult as to drive them from our shores. Tax us to death, take our homes and property at will and then tell us, "sue to get your rights BACK!"

Now add to this the internationalist factor, the UN dictatorship and the blending of all of the world's problems into a shared responsibility none of us can escape from, and you have the final recipe for a United States Police State. Government (read that police agencies) will be required to collect a UN tax, enforce mandatory confiscation of all firearms, required one world schooling and religion, uncompensated land forfeitures, Agenda 21 repression in every community and state, monitored phone, internet, credit, and medical histories. Add to that, constant threats of loss of employment for any failure to comply at any point with these and pending regulations beyond those listed here, and you have your future.

Police officers will be given the ultimate responsibility to see that each one of us is carrying out the dictates of the government. They will do so because they have sworn to uphold the "law." Ultimately, law will be what politicians and corrupted courts say that it is. Not what our constitution clearly states it actually is or is not. The due process protections will be gone as will be our dwindling Bill of Rights. Officers who have survived extreme background checks for compatibility with authority dictates and those who have proven that they will carry out ANY order given, will use this new definition of "character" to justify the investigation, arrest, detention, prosecution and imprisonment of "enemies of the state." The same will be true of military forces. The failed Nuremburg defense ("I was just carrying out orders") will be long forgotten or overlooked entirely. The only thing that will matter to the vast majority of American police forces will be that: 1) they obeyed their orders-and- 2) they obeyed their orders.

The thought of not carrying out orders from the traditional command structure is unthinkable, for it amounts to (gross insubordination) or mutiny and immediate dismissal and prosecution. Their disgrace and sense of betrayal among fellow police officers for disobeying (un)lawful orders (although a current requirement in all jurisdictions and in the military so as to avoid the Nuremburg hangman) would create tension, confusion and dissension in the ranks. By exercising independent judgment, common sense, compassion, and the application of huge amounts of resistance by those officers to unlawful commands (New Orleans Police during Katrina as they confiscated firearms), these courageous people will pay with the loss of their jobs and a certain addition of their names to the list of American patriots condemned to pay the ultimate price for bravery and commitment to the founding spirit of our nation.

In addition to this "group think" concerning the police "mission" of enforcing the law -- regardless of whether or not the law is righteous or constitutional---is the recent historic change in federal law. I am referring to Public Law 109-364, or the "John Warner Defense Authorization Act of 2007" (HR5122) (2), (that) was signed by President Bush on October 17, 2006. It was signed in a PRIVATE Oval Office ceremony. It allows the President to declare a "public emergency" and station troops anywhere in America. It also allows him to take control of all state based National Guard units without the consent of the governor or local authorities, in order to "suppress public disorder." Further, Section 1076 of this Act, entitled "Use of the Armed Forces in Major Public Emergencies" and Section 333, "Major Public Emergencies--interference with State and Federal Law," says that the President may use these forces when HE determines that domestic violence has occurred to such an extent that a State is incapable of (read that "refuse or fail" in) maintaining public order, "n order to suppress, in any State, any insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combination thereof or conspiracy to commit these acts against the United States."

This "repeal" of the Posse Comitatus Act (PCA) is a deadly blow on this historic prevention of US army units intervening in local disputes. The 1878 Act, protected local jurisdictions and even states from the willful intervention of corrupted or dictatorial executive branch orders being forced upon the locals by Army units in a law enforcement capacity.

As to be expected, the mainstream press has provided the American public with absolutely no information in regard to this police-

Electoral College Vote vs. One Man/Woman, One Vote

By, Sharon Lee; Shields
eagleinflight

"Americans" are in desperate need of enlightenment (disclosure), honest leadership and positive changes; but, instead of securing that through a "one-man/woman, one vote" (choice) process; the private federal governments continue to provide its "Citizens" with a pathetic illusion of choice; an Electoral College Voting process. What does the Electoral College Voting process mean? Nothing! The Electoral College Voting process is nothing more than a premeditated changing of the private federal government guards."

—Sharon Lee; Shields

Pawn, Puppet or Both

"Happy 2007 Year!" Already a busy and fruitful year for those of us working to peacefully restore the Peoples' lawful government; and, exposing the current government for what it's not.

With the predictable demise of the so-called November 2006 elections, I was reminded of my own political warning that eventually ended any thought of being involved in this government. But, my warning will shed light on the possible events of "Sarah Palin" becoming the State of Alaska's new Governor.

People are at their wits end and feel betrayed, and frustration mounts over government agencies, agents, courts and public safety all resembling Mafia practices, operations in harmony with thieves and thugs, providing bogus administrative processes, acting as if being traitors bears has no consequences for violating our "Bill of Rights", both on and off the federal clock. With our efforts of reinstituting the Original Constitution of the United States and the people's lawful government, some have entertained the idea of reviving Sunday afternoon hangings, as guaranteed for treason in the Original Constitution!

Many "facts" have to be sorted out before such drastic measures as Sunday afternoon hangings can be reinstituted. The good news is that it appears the handpicked private "Federal Judges" are getting the message that they have overstepped their boundaries!

The issues of jurisdiction and venue have to be defined back to grass roots of the problems (evils). You have to understand that there are "no" governments today that represent the people; only, federal corporations, private interests groups such as the "State" of Alaska. And, there is no such thing as "one man/woman, one vote"—gone when Lincoln signed the first executive order, instituting the private Congress and private Federal corporations. Local and state governments are under "federal jurisdiction and venue," with their headquarters in Washington, D.C. (Anyone wonder why Congress will not go out on a limb for the IRS to pass a "law" to lay taxes upon the People? Congress doesn't have the authority. It's nothing more than a corporate entity, which somehow throughout the years of all this government tyranny Congress hasn't overstepped that boundary!)

Does the Original Ten Articles of the Constitution of the United States grant Congress or the federal governments any powers over the people; or reference a "Democratic or Republican form of government?" It's time to wake up, People!

When you voluntarily appear in any State or Federal proceeding, you've unknowingly accepted the so-called privilege of the private federal government's jurisdiction and venue. Where "treason" comes into play is that the processes provided are not disclosed as being private processes (non-disclosure.) You are provided nothing more than a Fourteenth Amendment proceeding pursuant to the Federal Constitution for the United States (two Constitutions referenced here by the terms "of" and "for").

Federal charters are discrimination free because all "races of people" are equally classified as State and/or Federal Citizens/citizens. The rules have always been the same, under the protection of the Federal Constitution's Fourteenth Amendment; and, those rules are this: The outcome in every federal proceeding is made in advance, in the best interest of the Federal governments. Period!

What's wrong with that? If you owned a private corporation, wouldn't your decisions be in the best interest of your corporation, its elders, successors and stockholders? That's what the private federal governments do; create its own private rules, regulations and statutes!

Americans' are provided with the same "rights" to create a fictional image or corporation. Unfortunately, the problem with the federal government corporation is "non-disclosure", dragging unsuspecting Americans' into it jurisdiction and venue without disclosing that their authority is only over its federal employees and federal corporations. See Coleman vs. Miller, 307 U.S. 448, 59 S. Ct. 972; 28.

The term "corporations", as it relates to the private federal governments, are founded in the capital letter "S" in "States", known as federal zones, with "Citizenship/citizenship" in each State being nothing more than membership in a private corporation. Membership can be cancelled or annulled at any time, you know!

This leads us to the "Electoral College Vote" process, exemplifying the State of Alaska's Federal Corporation's recent electoral process for Governorship.

After the alleged elections, I had a discussion with a long time friend who reminded me of my own warning with Alaska politics, which will shed light on how Sarah Palin (hereafter Palin) allegedly won Governorship, in light of the gossip about her personal life and costly political blunders.

In 1994, I moved to Unalaska, Alaska (known as Dutch Harbor). I loved the isolation and people and, tried making it my home, working endlessly to fit into the small community and becoming a City of Unalaska employee; taking EMT Classes, college classes, volunteering on weekends at the domestic violence and sexual assault program, and spending my leisure time learning about the history of the Aleut People from the handful of Elders, left.

I put a lot of effort into securing a job with Public Safety; and, in two months applied for several different positions; but, wasn't even a candidate for any of them. Just as I realized something was amiss in the hiring processes, one of the Public Safety employees, whom I only knew from dropping off my applications, walked across the street one Saturday morning and quietly said, "Sharon, your efforts at employment are commendable; but, you'll never get a job with Public Safety because you have a clean record; candidates are hired in accordance with their criminal records; so they can be controlled."

I was stunned and insulted, and walked away in disbelief of such a lie! I only confided that political warning to one friend because back in 1994, I didn't believe what was said, even if the Individual was a respected long time member of the community.

Those words haunted me for years. Then after years of my own dead-end dealings with various federal corporations, I realized the warning wasn't a lie. It was the truth! And, now eat those words every time I dare to believe in government. So, the "rule" of politics, including the "Electoral College" voting and being a candidate, materialized before my eyes with Sarah Palin's Governorship!

In the "Electoral College" voting process the candidates are chosen for you because you're deemed incompetent through the Federal Fourteenth Amendment. See Black's Law, Fourth Edition, explaining the separation of governments in the two terms "electoral" and "vote."

Palin winning is a strange term for being hand-picked years prior; nothing to do with the people having a choice. Then, if your name appears as a Citizen on a "States" voter registration list, you're automatically subject to the Federal Corporations private Electoral College process.

Voter registration is exemplified in the reason why so many "Immigrants" are being admitted into North American, two fold: They become "Citizens" and "Sign up to vote!" Most Immigrants have bare-bones broken English, at best, and can hardly communicate. How in the world would we expect them to cast an honest vote? Not a problem. The "electoral college" vote is cast for them whether they show up or not!

Could you have nominated your outstanding neighbor, known for his/her service to your community and having fulfilled all the qualification of a candidate? No.

A handful of "federalist" behind closed doors hand picked Palin and her opponent. Palin was brought out of the federal employee pool, polished and her words dictated and memorized; while the People were mesmerized in hype and charade that they had chosen the candidates; but, in truth they "settled" for the candidates!

It doesn't matter if a Republican or Democrat secured the Governorship, or in any other federal office for that matter; because the "Electoral College" of candidates came for the same tree so to speak; and, apples don't fall far from the tree! Translated: If the candidates are not of "like minds and perform the will of the present régime"; they can't be trusted or controlled; therefore, are not even a consideration for the "Electoral College Pool." As exemplified in my political warning!

So, let's unravel the accomplishments that afforded Palin superior to fill "Federal Man" Frank Murkowski's Governorship-shoes.

I met Sarah Palin in 1994, just before leaving for Unalaska. We attended the same aerobics class at what was then called "Family Fitness Center" in Wasilla, Alaska. She was quiet and appeared to be a loner; but, so was I. So, we worked out along side each other for weeks, not saying a word, just acknowledging each other's presence.

I thought Palin was guarded because of the locker room gossip, which was Palin, and her husband got busted growing a marijuana crop; and, the previous owner of their property was quickly blackballed from Wasilla and then Alaska for letting the cat out of the bag, so to speak. With so much community interest and gossip it appeared true.

Wasilla was in a buzz. No one could figure out why Palin and hubby wasn't arrested and sentenced to long prison terms; their property and crop seized, and children taken away; normal federal procedures, now days.

My input in the gossip was that if Palin or anyone else had claimed a crop as being "hemp" the Fed's had no jurisdiction or venue over hemp. Hemp was banned for convenience sake when the wealthy Hurst family (Remember Patty Hurst?) brought most of the timber in North America and promoted timber sales, instead of "hemp" sales. Timber sales can be controlled easily and hemp sales cannot! In the federal government's infinite wisdom, it made a new term for hemp calling it "marijuana", putting it into Federal jurisdiction, statutorily making it illegal to have and or grow.

Then, that gossip had no more than died out, when I heard that Palin was elected Mayor of Wasilla, Alaska! Wow! My thoughts whirled, "Only in America could an alleged busted marijuana grower become Mayor in such a small community!"

But, time and political warnings had a way of changing that thinking, though.

Then the next horrendous gossip was that Mayor Sarah Palin authorized road and power improvements on private property, land in the vicinity of the new Wasilla Airport site. It was said that Palin boasted about having "power, money and big attorney firms" backing her if she ran into any snags.

Does anyone see the beginnings of the Fourth Reich, here?

Palin and company exemplified top performances on how government runs over People as business as usual in the federal government. At least Palin and company presumed they'd be dealing with ordinary People owning the property, perhaps even struggling to hang onto it. Had there been objection to her tyranny, the People wouldn't have a chance up against Palin's unbridled power and money interest groups who had every intension of improving the property, stealing it!

The property was improved with roads and power; with visions of tying it up in litigation for years, knowing that time, power, money and sheer greed would swallow-up and ruin any ordinary man or woman in short order.

However, the "Mayor Sarah Palin and attorney plan" back fired on them. Big time! Gossip applauded and celebrated, anxious to see how Palin and company were going to back peddle out of this one!

Gossip provided an ending that warms the heart of honest men and women, everywhere, and sends a clear warning to government. Wasilla Mayor Sarah Palin, (the new Governor) and attorneys were indeed tied up in litigation, secret litigation, costing the City of Wasilla millions of dollars, including the unauthorized improvements on private property! If it was publicized it was tucked in a real small corner of the news and toned down to a whisper.

Palin and company got what their arrogance and greed deserved: They came up against big power and big money, complete with its own attorney firm(s)! The private party owning the Wasilla property was enjoying the sun on their own private Island when news came that their Alaska property was being developed by the City of Wasilla!

Litigation consisted of big money vs. bigger money; power vs. unlimited power; shiftless attorneys vs. shifter attorneys; and, in the end when all the smoke cleared and magic mirrors failed, truth was the only thing left; and, the truth was that Mayor Sarah Palin trespassed and destroyed private property!

Palin was put back into the federal closet. Then, low and behold, true to federal-form had been prepped and ready to fill the State of Alaska's Governor's position!

Is Sarah Palin a puppet, a pawn, or both? Can she be controlled to do and say whatever the federal Elders' desire? Those who had knowledge of the marijuana

U.S. TREASURY SECRETARY HENRY M. PAULSON HAS BEEN ARRESTED IN EUROPE – RE; THEFT OF WANTA’S $4.5 TRILLION

SENTENCING INFLICTS EXTREME DISGRACE UPON THE UNITED STATES GENERALLY. U.S. TREASURY SECRETARY SEIZED AND BROUGHT BEFORE ‘AD HOC’ TRIBUNAL IN GERMANY ON A SUBPOENA HANDED OUT BY THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE [OR ‘WORLD COURT’] ON CHARGES OF MONEY-LAUNDERING, NON-PAYMENT OF THE WANTA $4.5 TRILLION AND FOR MISAPPROPRIATION AND/OR DIVERSION OF COLOSSAL $$$ SUMS. VICE PRESIDENT CHENEY LIKEWISE AT THE RECEIVING END OF PARALLEL SUBPOENA FOR SIMILAR CRIMINAL OFFENCE(S). GERMAN AUTHORITIES EXERCISED THE INTERNATIONAL SUBPOENA, BRINGING PAULSON (AND CHENEY) UNDER GERMAN JURISDICTION, GIVEN THAT

GERMAN BANKS TRYING TO MAKE THE WANTA PAYMENT WERE TWICE PREVENTED BY MR PAULSON FROM DOING SO. WHEN THIS HAPPENED THE SECOND TIME, PAULSON WAS ARRESTED. PAULSON CHARGED WITH DIVERSION OF FUNDS AND WITH NON-PERFORMANCE OF WANTA’S $4.5 TRILLION: HE WAS ARRESTED AFTER SEEING MME ANGELA MERKEL, WHO WOULD OTHERWISE BE COMPLICIT IN THE $4.5 TRILLION THEFT (WHICH OF COURSE SHE IS NOT). BUT THAT WAS THE SITUATION. ARREST CONFIRMED BY SEVEN SOURCES: KEY U.S. TREASURY OFFICIAL ORDERED TO GERMANY, SUBJECTED TO A GAG ORDER, AND INSTRUCTED TO TESTIFY AGAINST HIS OWN TREASURY SECRETARY. HE HAS BEEN IN GERMANY FOR THE PAST TWO WEEKS, TESTIFYING BEFORE THE TRIBUNAL, STAFF OF THE U.S. CONSULATE AND THE GERMAN ATTORNEY GENERAL

(EQUIVALENT) ABOUT THE ENDESSLY FRUSTRATED ATTEMPTSO FAMBASSADOR WANTA’S CORPORATION, TO OBTAIN RELEASE OF THE FUNDS, AND ABOUT ALLEGED CRIMINAL VIOLATIONS BY PAULSON, GOLDMAN SACHS AND COMPANY, ET AL. U.S. ‘MAINSTREAM MEDIA’ WITHHOLDING THE BIGGEST SCANDAL IN WORLD HISTORY FROM THE MUCH-ABUSED AMERICAN PEOPLE. By Christopher Story FRS Editor and Publisher, International Currency Review, World Reports Limited, London and New York: <http://www.worldreports.org/>. US Treasury Secretary Paulson has been arrested by German authorities on a subpoena issued by the International Court of Justice, and brought before an ‘ad hoc’ Tribunal accused of money-laundering, misappropriation/diversion of colossal amounts of money, and

non-payment/non-performance on the $4.5 trillion Wanta Plan Settlement. He has been sentenced to severe penalties [see below]. Henry M. Paulson’s arrest by German authorities implementing the ‘World Court’ subpoena, took place on 23rd or 24th of December 2006. Although we have been ‘sitting on’ this intelligence since the Christmas weekend, pending further information, we now have very high-level confirmations from both London and Washington, and a total of seven sources for this intelligence.

The basic details are as follows:

1. Records exist confirming that International Court of Justice subpoenas were issued against Henry M. Paulson, the U.S. Secretary of the Treasury, and Vice President Richard Cheney, citing inter alia money-laundering, misappropriation or diversion of colossal amounts of money, and non-performance on the Wanta Plan Settlement funds of $4.5 trillion, subject of www.worldreports.org postings since June 2006. This is an inevitable consequence of the corruption exposed on this website over the Wanta Settlement, for the past six months and more.
2. A senior official within the US Treasury was placed under a gag order and was subpoenaed to travel to Germany to testify against Henry M. Paulson. The official has been in Germany for the past two weeks, testifying before US Consulate and Tribunal officials, and Germany’s Attorney General. The subject of his testimony has been the struggle that Ambassador Leo Wanta and his corporate Treasurer, Michael C. Cottrell, M.S., have been having to endure, in order to procure payment of the $4.5 trillion Wanta Plan Settlement signed in May 2006 by the President of the United States, US Supreme Court Judges, and other prominent US parties, and warmly welcomed by the Group of Eight (G-8) countries in July 2006. He has also been testifying in detail about the ransacking of funds that has been taking place in recent months, and the illegal activity over which Mr Henry M. Paulson has been presiding in this context. Mr Paulson, who has sole signatory power over Wanta’s hijacked $4.5 trillion, was previously the Chief Executive Officer of Goldman Sachs and Company, so that his behaviour represents the Grandfather of all US and international financial conflict-of-interest scandals.

3. The official was required to present the Tribunal with the Above all, we are sick to death of being the World’s bad guys! We want America once again to be at the forefront of the good guys. We don’t need or want to run the world. You have proven yourselves incapable of running small nations that America bombs back into the Stone Age on behalf of foreign interests. You thereby have proven our own inability to select decent leadership for ourselves. Why, you have proven incapable of putting your own political party houses in order! Your individual records of corruption, fiscal mismanagement and sexual misbehavior defy description and thus demonstrate your inability, even, to run your own lives. It is folly to think you capable of running the lives of others, let alone entire nations of people and, least of all, the rest of us. We are through with tolerating the death of our children in foreign lands for the benefit of special interests, particularly those foreign to America. End that stupid war and do it NOW. Get our sons and daughters back home in time for the holidays. Make no mistake about our resolve in this regard, incidentally. We have had it with the sex scandals and stupid personal behavior of every sort on the part of you clowns. That explains a good deal of why we voted “yes” on Marriage initiatives everywhere they appeared on the ballot. You are there to work on our behalf, not to fornicate and not to molest our children! Corruption has to be reduced dramatically, if not eliminated altogether. In particular, you had better stop lining your own pockets with bribes and graft while voting yourselves princely wages and perquisites. Thinking yourselves better than the rest of us is salt in the wound. Even more particularly, you had best shut down the Israeli lobby and start tending to traditionally American interests again. Otherwise, consider what the view might be like while dangling from the end of a rope tied to a lamp post. All of Bush’s illegal Executive Orders and Signing Statements are to be declared null and void. We want illegal immigration stopped. Now. In fact, we want it reversed. No amnesty, no how, for nobody no more. The American police state must be dismantled immediately. We are not the enemy. Try to use what you have created and you will learn the real meaning of force. The Military Commissions Act, Warner Defense Authorization Act, both Patriot Acts and all related limitations upon the U.S. Constitution are to be rescinded. All prosecutions under these unconstitutional laws are to stop and all previous convictions are to be vacated with records expunged. The Department of Homeland Security is to be disbanded. Michael Chertoff is to be investigated and charged if shown to have acted beyond his authority in any regard. You must stop spending our grandchildren’s wealth. Already, you have squandered that built up over generations by our forebears. We realize it is too late to stop the economic freight train now bearing down upon our children and ourselves, but you must stop this madness before we become a nation of debt slaves in perpetuity. George Bush and Dick Cheney must be impeached, convicted and removed from office. It is not enough to stop their mindless rampage through domestic freedom and international orderliness via Congressional gridlock. We require a symbolic cleansing. We must show the world and our children that no American is above the law. Afterward, along with their Neocon handlers, they are to be bound over for criminal trial for the high crimes they have committed, particularly their war crimes against all of humanity. The impending North American Union of the USA with Canada and Mexico is to be repudiated. All financial market interference and manipulation must stop now. Devalue the dollar to its true worth, vis-a-vis international currencies and release all other countries from any requirement of using the dollar as the world’s reserve currency. Most important of the financial reforms, the Federal Reserve Bank must be dismantled and its private, mostly foreign, owners required to disgorge their ill-gotten gains. This can be accomplished simply by printing a single Federal Reserve Note with the face value of America’s entire national debt plus the value of those foreigners’ holdings within America and handing it over to them in payment for their holdings and satisfaction of the mind-boggling sums they claim to be owed. Yes, it can be that easy. The international banking families who own the Federal Reserve Bank created the problem of the incredible shrinking American dollar to mask their own underlying theft of our wealth. Therefore, they cannot complain if there is no inherent value to what they receive for their exceedingly evil machinations of the past 90 years. There must be an orderly transition to a new American dollar, limited in its growth by an external, non-manipulable standard. Gold and silver traditionally have served this purpose, merely because their extraction from the ground has matched, approximately, the general increase in the world’s population and productivity. This single, simple expedient automatically will eliminate inflation for all time, together with the related impoverishment that it brings to our parents and grandparents. That will do for starters. Accomplish these things and we might just re-elect you next time around to work on an all-new to-do list. Fail and we all fail, because

- and make no mistake about this, either - if we go down, we will take you with us ... and it won’t be pretty. I, for one, will spend my last pennies on a length of good, solid rope. My name is Edgar J. Steele. Thanks for listening. Please visit my web site, <http://www.ConspiracyPenPal.com>, for other messages just like this one.

Editor comment; HERE’S MY FIVE-CENTS WORTH; While I’m not too impressed with attorneys, I’m in favor of the above, but while we’re at it, let’s go all the way. Exterminate the IRS, terminate the National Emergency and the U.S. Bankruptcy, return all property and its titles to the American people, incarcerate all judges for 20 years who have ruled against any American which cost either the life or loss of property, fines, jail, prison or and/or any destruction to ‘Life, Liberty or pursuit of Happiness,’ and demand our public servants to make a National Declaration that the people have a right to travel in their private conveyances without license and are above government so long as they do not harm the life, liberty and property of another American and that the people have a right to carry an ‘Arm’ (gun) any time any where in their country! Well, it’s a beginning and we can certainly extend the list later!

PARADISE AWAKENING

In Service; Patrick McCormick
Special Counsel to Majesty Akahi
Nui,
King of Hawaii
December 20,2006

It has been a while. It has been a while since our last update in the American's Bulletin, and its been a long while that the cause in Hawaii to restore a Sovereign Kingdom of God back into its seat of power as the True Government of Hawaii has been going on. So this is a brief update;

Although there are over 100 groups trying to get some sort of control of the commercial government in Hawaii, the Hawaii Kingdom/Kingdom of Hawaii, under Majesty Akahi Nui as King and Head of State, is not a group. It is the true government returning into power. Majesty Akahi Nui, King of Hawaii, is 100% royal blood, descended from a long ancestral line of kings and queens.

During our many years of research, one of the main things we discovered is that there are two types of property titles; titles of ownership and titles of possession. In those many years (since 1980) of arguing the issue of who owns the land, the state courts in Hawaii never told His Majesty the truth. They never argued the fact that the Kingdom owns the land, as declared by Kamehameha III's signature from the 1800's, which is what His Majesty proclaimed. You can "own" the land, but you will not control it until you have title of possession, which the State of Hawaii had, until just recently when it all reverted back to the Kingdom.

The issue came to a head around 2002. Majesty Akahi never bent, gave in or sold his (or his Kingdom's) sovereignty, and there was nothing the courts were able to do against him during his many years of battles with them. A year or two just prior to that, they "removed from the court record" the 500-600 traffic tickets he got for donning florescent orange "Kingdom of Hawaii" license plates in 1992, proving their inability to collect the more than $50,000 in fines they had accumulated against him.

So they had to rig another bogus charge against him. Resurrecting the original "trespass charge" from 1980, for going on his family's land and praying to his ancestors for guidance at his great-great-great-great-grandmothers grave from the Konohiki Council of 1840, they gave him 5 years and put him Halawa Prison, where the murderers and rapists were, to have him taken out. Five months later, they released him and paid his flight back to Maui. After that, everything changed. People started acting different. The lawyer for the State of Hawaii contacted them and said; "I told them not to throw you in jail. They didn't listen, and now its a anyone buying land to know the Kingdom owned it all and had superior interest, now both in ownership and possession.

What does that mean? It basically puts an "original cloud" on their cloudy fraudulent title, effectively voiding all current land title in Hawaii. This was possible because the land trust from 1855 had placed all land in Hawaii (and then Polynesia) in allodia in its own law system, making it impossible for anyone to "own" land thereafter. Majesty had effectively nationalized all land out of United States and back into his original jurisdiction.

While this was happening, since 1998, we got the Kingdom case into the ICJ (International Court of Justice) at the Hague, where it was weighed for five years. The thing about the ICJ is that it can only "recognize" another states existence, it cannot enforce a jurisdiction. But the fact that they recognized the Kingdom "exists" in this time, means that now the U.S. must deal with Majesty Akahi and the Kingdom as a nation with whom it has treaties.

Which brings us to the fact that has recently been discovered that all treaties the Kingdom had from the 1800's are still valid and enforceable. Among the 90 nations, empires and monarchies the Hawaii Kingdom is in treaty with, the United States has five treaties with them, which they effectively stepped on when they facilitated the invasion with weapons of mass destruction (cannons and Gatling guns) in 1893 by the greedy descendants of the missionaries, thus implicating the U.S. in state liability.

President Cleveland was furious, so he sent Special Envoy James Blount to study the situation, who subsequently wrote a 1200 page congressional report for Cleveland. Although he demanded they return Hawaii, the greedy missionary descendants claimed themselves as their own country. It was not until 1898, when McKinley's gang was trying to take over the world during diplomatic issue. So I want to work for you guys."

It was then that the Royal Patent "Island" Deeds emerged, on January 9th, 2002, where the Kingdom recorded all its land in allodial, Island by Island, and district by district, with tax exempt status verified by the attached IRS document. The State Bureau of Conveyance sent them out to the different counties, but they did not get recorded. This was done because they didn't want tees we hope to encourage creativity and ingenuity that will help us strengthen our nation's energy security," Secretary Bodman said. (<http://www.energy.gov/print/3904.htm>)

Just last month yet another press release dated October 24, 2006, which can be found on the Department of Energy website, states "U.S. Department of energy (DOE) Secretary Samuel W. Bodman today announced $100 Million to fund 25 hydrogen research and development projects that can help change the way we power our nation. These projects support President Bush's Advanced Energy Initiative, which seeks to reduce our dependence on foreign sources of energy through the research, development and deployment of transformational new clean energy technologies." (<http://www.energy.gov/print/sciencetech/4401.htm>) Does somebody have a screw loose?

The Aerodynamic Air Turbine Engine will change the way we power our nation. That is exactly what the AAT Engine will do. The question is; Is the federal government seeking a "transformational new clean energy technology" or not? That is exactly what the AAT Engine is. All of these federal funds being used (300 Billion expended on the Iraq war!) and press conferences being held are in vain – while the AAT Engine is already developed, tested and proven to work! There is LIVE VIDEO of the AAT Engine running, which is readily available for anyone to see.

Last month was Energy Awareness Month and Samuel Bodman, Secretary of Energy, spoke about promoting greater energy efficiency on October 2, 2006. He went on to say, "The Department of Energy continues to be the largest funder of basic scientific research and development in the physical sciences. This commitment will allow our nation to continue leading the world in scientific breakthroughs and innovation." (<http://www.whitehouse.gov/ask/print/20061002.html>)

Where is this commitment Secretary Bodman speaks of? Where is the passion for clean energy that the White House and Department of Energy readily spew out during these press conferences, when the solution is staring them in the face? Ron Rockwell and others prayed that once their 'Press Release' was sent to the White House, the Department of Energy, local and national news agencies (55 in total), and any other institution that truly wants to see and promote a technology that will increase economic and national security, end oil wars, create tens of thousands of jobs in this country and hundreds of thousands more across the globe and stop the pollution of our oceans, air and soil, and be a part of history; that they would contact anyone and everyone they know that could help bring the AAT Engine to market. All major medias and otherwise that were sent the press release have gone stone cold silent!

It now becomes necessary to take the gloves off, so to speak, and go to the people and seek your assistance and your help in forwarding this information/article to at least 10 people to inform them of this life changing, almost STAR TREK technology!

Ron Rockwell and Dr. Bob Beverly, while in Washington, D.C. contacted Fox News Channel 5 earlier that morning of November 3rd, in hopes to bring more media attention to the ATT Engine. They spoke to a fox agent there named Sheila. Sheila said that unless they had a story about the Iraq war or the upcoming elections that Fox probably wouldn't run a story on it. She said that those were the 2 most pressing issues that people wanted to hear about. Unbelievable! Is that because Fox, ABS, CBS and NBC, etc. are government controlled corporations and therefore are part of the problem? It is this kind of attitude and indifference towards true solutions for peace and clean energy which has prevented this country and this world from realizing its full potential? And people like Sheila apparently fail to realize that if Iraq weren't an oil rich country we wouldn't be there at all.

The indifference and the bureaucracy Ron Rockwell and Dr. Bob Beverly had to endure just to get someone, anyone, to assist in the launching of the AAT Engine is almost as incredible as the Engine itself! But the Wizard proved not to be so.... intelligent!

The eminent threat of decreasing oil supply to the United States has been known for years. Just last year the Washington Post released an article about a “war game” performed with high-level participants. The exercise was called “Oil Shockwave.” The exercise had real-life former top U.S. officials taking on the role of members of the President’s Cabinet, convening to respond to escalating energy crisis, culminating in $5.32-a-gallon gasoline and a world wobbling into economic recession. The article went onto say “The American people are going to pay a terrible price for not having had an energy strategy.” said former CIA director Robert M. Gates, who took on the role of national security adviser. Stepping out of character, he added that “the scenarios portrayed were absolutely not alarmist; they’re realist.” “The participants concluded almost unanimously that they must press the President to invest quickly in promising technologies to reduce dependence on overseas oil...” “They all agreed these projects would take years to yield any benefit but should not wait for the kind of crisis they were dramatizing.” What’s the normal reaction/solution to problems facing government? Why “RAISE TAXES!” (<http://www.washingtonpost.com/wpdyn/content/article/2005/06/23/AR2005062301896.html>)

No longer do we have to wait years as was thought in 2005 for a solution to the biggest crisis of the 21st century. The solution is here and it is proven. The AAT Engine is the answer we’ve all been waiting for... for OUR Country, for our children and the WORLD! Time is of the essence and we must act now!

By Karen L. Tappert
Back from the Evil grip of a mad-man

You wouldn’t think meeting someone on your birthday, would turn out to be such a poor gift. At the first sight of the Pirate I was intrigued with his wisdom, so much so I recorded what I could during our short afternoon meeting. The money amounts he wanted to charge (for what I thought was intellect and legal services) was much too rich for my blood. Who could pay $500.00 an hour at a ten hour minimum anyway, so I just let it slide off my back, and told the Pirate I could do what was needed with what I had recorded. The Pirate was coy through worming and manipulating his evil force toward me. He saw value and worth through my tale of calamity and already saw himself wheeling my carriage of transportation about town, managing his evil and wrongdoings. Already within his grip, he sacked me on the playing field and said he would only charge me costs, and would split whatever settlement I might get from my suits in Oregon. Of course no contracts, handshakes, or agreements, just his word was his bond of trust and was all he required. That should have been my first clue, as most who use their word as their bond, are actually using their very soul as their seal. What I failed to realize was one lacking a conscience has no soul. I later would find out his sly ways would, seize, steal, and loot, me as his privateering acts would soon sink his ship called PIRACY and PLAGIARISM.

After meeting with the Pirate, I went back to work at The American’s Bulletin, doing this and that to help Robert Kelly with his office tasks. I spent countless hours which changed into days of time organizing my docket books regarding my cases in Oregon for the Pirate aka; Charles C. Miller, being newly released from prison. I made several trips to Miller’s new office in Reno, NV to bring documents, dockets, information and of course the old mighty dollars he so counted on from me. In cash of course when in person, and Western Union when I couldn’t make it in person. I was running around frantic most of the time. And by this time back and forth to Oregon, trying to stay on top of the game, going to court, hiding out in my house and the truck in the garage to protect my assets as the thieves came

Present Day Pirates

Still Pillaging, Plundering and Stealing

...The first meeting

knocking at my door on a daily basis. Miller required more and more documents, wanting me to overnight them most of the time and sometimes that never ending $20.00 a mailing would cut me quite short with already very low funds.

The Pirate aka Charles C. Miller soon became known as Evil, as his goal was to help me in ways to produce more money, which would eventually end in Reno, NV aka Sodom and Gomorrah and in his grip to use in his continuing corruption. My property was finally sold the very morning of foreclosure, landing me in the hospital with heart failure due to the stress of the ordeal. My recovery continues as I was pushed and prodded to help the Evil One now that he had written a few letters and made a few phone calls on my behalf. After all there was a $120,000.00 insurance account waiting to be seized just 48 hours away.

Off to Sodom my son went taking office furniture, equipment, and household furniture to live and build a business in Gomorrah. I soon followed, after I paid a few things up and settled a few accounts in Bend, Oregon.

The main suit was still ongoing and had to be attended to with trips back and forth. Court appearances, and never ending papers to be filed, of which was beginning to get repetitive to say the least.

By this time I had given the Evil One over $12,000.00 in cash money for whatever he does, as I was getting nothing from the Bend suits. The only paper that was written was when the Evil One felt I was getting upset, and was afraid the bank roll would go away. My personal funds paid for rents, office space, phone bills, groceries, utilities, and my personal things in Oregon. My personal things in Oregon were starting to wear on the Evil ones nerves, wanting that money to himself, suggesting I sell my home, my huge water truck that has been moved to Sodom, even my motor home could bring in a smooth 5 grand. At least that is what his sister would have paid for it. He got the $2,000 to pay his brother for a car that his dad had left, but wanted to sell it as soon as he got it for more money. I gave him more money and he put the car into my name and business name I had then financed. The car sat day after day, as he drove my newer Chevy pickup. The Evil One got two traffic tickets in my truck, and was proud to say he beat the raps! The truth of the matter is; I paid the fines! You don’t beat anything when you pay the fines, but Charles C. Miller wants everyone to think that he beat ‘em for whatever reason.

Living with the Evil one I soon saw with my very eyes the den of iniquity, and sewer I have found myself in. The Evil one was using everyone he came in contact with, taking their money and not keeping his word, where he placed his bond of trust. I saw men go to jail after handing over $15,000.00 to the Evil one in hopes of help. I saw a little ole’ lady in Florida desperate for help wire him $5,000.00 to help her in her case, only to find more empty promises. Others, paying thousands of dollars to escape tax messes, only to find felony charges against them. One airline Pilot gave his precious thousands of dollars to obtain help, only to be thrown in jail and then blackballed by the Evil One for obtaining an attorney after four long months in the county jail all the while this Evil One did nothing. Felons don’t fly planes, and it ends careers, so I am doing whatever I can to hopefully reduce the charges to misdemeanors. Men are ending in jail after associating with the Charles C. Miller, myself with a warrant, preventing me from going back home to Bend, Oregon, all from using his paperwork and words of not so wise wisdom. All thanks to the Evil One, Charles C. Miller, a 9 Year Felon, out on parole for Bank Fraud, Mail Fraud, Extortion and Theft. And now continuing his demonic acts of evil and deception with everyone being seduced in blindness by his hypnotic words.

Felons are not allowed to associate with Felons, Charles C. Miller is staying rent free in his second office building in downtown Reno lawyer-village; 491 Court Street, Reno, NV 89501 (Gomorrah) rented for him by another known felon who’s a stockbroker who does inside trading.

The Evil One and one of his mob-buddies threatened on many occasions to destroy a fairly new company called Safe Pay Solutions, which I believe they have done successfully, as I have purchased stock in this company at their advice, and now it has dropped like a rock, just as the Evil One and his mob-buddy told me it would, and they are destroying it. The Evil One billed Safe Pay for $69,000.00 for reasons unknown, and said if they didn’t pay they were going down. I guess somebody is taking them down, because my stock is worthless these days. The Evil One associates with another known felon, of which at the time I did not know, of whom I paid $3,500.00 to set up his business, a data mining company called Pleading Pro. Inc.. He was shocked to find out I had the receipt for money received and it was not the Evil One who paid for it. He continues to promise me stock in Pleading Pro. Inc. and informed me he had been giving the funds back to the Evil One, not to the one who paid it originally, me!

However, he doesn’t want me to mention his name, but being associated with the Evil One and possibly ex C.I.A., I could care less. I have been told they are all terrorist, so I certainly can’t stop any of them so I simply wrote an affidavit for my protection and safety, and have mailed it out to many people across the United States who knows me.

I found packets of information that people scraped together using their last dimes to overnight these packages to the Evil One for help, left unopened, no money enclosed... no help provided. Whatever that means, as I do not know of even one person the Evil One has helped.

I watched as my pregnant dog ‘Whisper’ was stolen from our backyard only after I had completed a rental agreement for the office I had rented, showing the home address. Within days the dog was gone, and I on my way back to Oregon for more court affairs. Strangely the Evil One assured me she would come back. Sure enough she did, and was dropped at our home at midnight, in Sodom while I was left helpless in Oregon, stripped of her puppies the very day she was due. What a pitiful sight, watching as she lay there trying to nurse phantom puppies that had been stripped from her side. Its my belief that the Evil One made the arrangements for her disappearance to obtain the money from her puppies. What wickedness lurking within his empty soul, what venom spews from his bowels of darkness.

After months of supporting the Evil One, providing my truck for his disposal, he starts to unravel at his core, his trips to Sin City (Las Vegas) on business trips caught up with him, his affair with another came apart, his contacts ended, his romancing with the thoughts of

More Positive Changes For 2007

Key word – POSITIVE, that’s right no more moaning, groaning or complaining. If you have something to share with The American’s Bulletin and our readers we are asking that you now:

- ☀ Give it a positive slant when you are writing it - if it is your original work.
- ☀ Look for and share a remedy, solution or action to take along with the injustice you may be seeing.
- ☀ Focus on solutions rather than problems – corny we know but “where the thought goes, the energy flows this is called the power of your intention, so make it your intention to be a problem solver, rather than a ‘chicken little’ – didn’t work for him, doesn’t work for us.

There is always a solution to the problem, whatever it may be – the challenge is to seek it out, then apply it in your life and ultimately to share it with others . . .

What we are talking about here is more ‘attitude’ than actual action, for example - just being a Secured Party Creditor – filing the UCC-1, 3, 11 - having a SPC ID card, stamp or whatever does not make anyone truly Sovereign.

You never really lost your Sovereignty – God Created you as a sovereign person – you simply have gone through a formal process [Redemption] to take back control of your life as it relates to the commercial world we live in.

This is a POSITIVE action – one that benefits you, your family, your friends, business associates and ultimately everyone you come into contact with.

We know that each of us looking for a better way – the higher way to deal with our life and all of the challenges we each face and we know that 2007 is going to be a GOOD YEAR for everyone.

The following is a review of a movie my wife and I saw recently that was just released on DVD – it typifies the point I am trying to make.

Facing the Giants

From the award winning producers of FLYWHEEL, comes an action-packed drama about a Christian high school football coach who uses his undying faith to battle the giants of fear and failure. In six years of coaching, Grant Taylor has never led his Shiloh Eagles to a winning season. Even the hope of a new season is squelched when the best player on his Shiloh Eagles decides to transfer schools.

After learning that he and his wife Brooke face infertility and then losing his first three games of the season, the coach discovers a group of fathers are plotting to have him fired. Combined with pressures at home, Coach Taylor has lost hope in his battle against fear and failure.

When Grant receives a message from an unexpected visitor, he searches for a stronger purpose for his football team one bigger than just victories. He dares to challenge his players to Believe In God for the impossible on and off the field. When faced with unbelievable odds, the Eagles must step up to their greatest test of strength and courage. Devastated by his circumstances, he cries out to God in desperation

Daring to trust God to do the impossible, Coach Taylor and the Eagles discover how faith plays out on the field--and off. With God, all things are possible. What transpires is a dynamic story of the fight between faith and fear. Facing the Giants is a powerful experience for the whole family inspiring viewers to live with faith, hope, and love!

This is not the church we attended. The reporter questioned the gentleman and said that Eddie told people he was the pastor (NOT!) and asked the man if this was so. The mans understandably reported that no, in fact Eddie was not the pastor, that he did not know who Eddie was nor had he ever seen him. So from what I am told the records show that Eddie was kicked out of Panama for perjury. Incredible... especially when that is the one thing he stressed to the kids... do not lie.....not be commission or by omission... simply do not lie!

I have always been told to believe only half of what I see and nothing of what I read. I understand this concept to the fullest now.

Our time in Panama was very refreshing and renewing meeting people who were like minded thinkers. As we see events unfold in the US and see the way people reacted to them it confirms our beliefs regarding our ountry. Forgive me but I see the country I love turning into another Germany right before my eyes.

As a couple, we have done all that is humanly possible to help avoid that. That has been our heavenly assignment, and we have been faithful to that calling. Some of you do not understand how we could jeopardize our family life by standing for this truth. Others understand if very well and have commented to us that they agree wholeheartedly but just did not have the guts to do what Eddie has done. Yet, others love us and grieve for our situation saying that the Lord puts different things on different people’s hearts but this is not something that He has put on theirs. Whatever your position is, please know that we do not hold anyone else in judgment and that we count you all as dear ones and a positive influence in our lives.

I have been asked by so many people to keep them updated on Eddie’s situation as things develop. If you care to be included on this list there is no need to respond as I have included you in this thank you. I know there are others that I would have liked to include here but I do not have their emails. If you know others who did not get this message and would like to have it, please feel free to forward this message and they can return an email to this address asking to be put on the list. In the same token, if you have received this email and wish to be taken off the list for personal or other reasons, all you have to do is let me know. I will not harbor any ill feelings.

I will try to keep you updated as things develop but please know and understand that it will not be on a daily basis.

My duties since I landed on American soil are a nonstop effort to help free Eddie. He is being mistreated in the jail and his health is being compromised. A Physician’s Assistant has indicated his needs but those evaluations are being ignored.

Up to this point the Judge has said that Eddie was a flight risk and did not want to let him out on any bond. If the truth be known, they do not want to let him out so that he can properly prepare for trial which has been scheduled for March. I have surrendered his passport and also turned in a copy of his Offer of Conditional Acceptance. This document was originally given to FBI Agent David Wattleby by Sandra Cerrud, Eddie’s Attorney in Panama at the US Embassy. When handed to him, he rudely threw it back at her and said that he would not accept it. Eddie could also wear a fashionable ankle bracelet. Well, the good news is, that Thursday, December 14th at 10:00 AM (changed from the original 2PM time), there will now be a Bond Hearing. Please keep him in your prayers regarding this.

For those of you asking about sending Eddie mail or a note of encouragement, his address is:

Eddie Kahn #0101545
Pod D - D
c/o Marion County Sheriff’s
Office Detention Center
700 NW 30th Ave.
Ocala, Florida 34475

At this point I would wait to see how the Bond Hearing goes before sending anything because hopefully he won’t be there to receive it after Thursday. This is my positive thinking happenin’! I will return to South Florida and let you know the news within a few days.

Some of you have also requested the address to send donations for Eddie’s defense fund. That address is:

And, last but not least if you have not seen the movie “FREEDOM TO FASCISM”, an Aaron Russo Documentary, I encourage you to do so. It is our life in a nutshell and many of the people in the movie are our very close friends who have also been victimized. In an effort to educate the American public a friend of ours contacted Aaron Russo about making copies of his movie for distribution to the public. I got an email from Aaron a few days ago telling me that in efforts to free Eddie we could copy and distribute as many copies as we wanted. I am told you can view this movie online at www.freedomtofascism.com. The quality and sound may not be as good as in the theatres but it is scarier that any Halloween movie. You undivided attention will keep you from missing some excellent quotes. It runs 1 hour and 49 minutes.

Aaron Russo’s America: Freedom to Fascism Synopsis
Wednesday, 28 June 2006

Determined to find the law that requires Americans to pay income tax, Aaron Russo (THE ROSE, TRADING PLACES) sets out on a journey. Neither left- nor right-wing, this startling examination exposes the systematic erosion of civil liberties in America. Through interviews with US Congressmen, a former IRS Commissioner, former IRS and FBI agents, tax attorneys and authors, Russo connects the dots between money creation, federal income tax, voter fraud, the national identity card (becoming law in May 2008) and the implementation of radio frequency identification (RFID) technology to track citizens. A striking case about the evolving police state in America.

BIG TROUBLE IN LITTLE CHINA

From: Gary Reil
<areilamerican@webtv.net>
Date: Sun, 17 Dec 2006 16:46:20 GMT

BEIJING -- Sources with a U.S. Delegation in Beijing have told The Hal Turner Show the Chinese government has informed visiting Bush Administration officials they intend to dump One TRILLION U.S. Dollars from China's Currency Reserves and convert those funds into Euros, gold and silver!

China was allegedly asked to withhold the announcement until Bullion Markets closed for the weekend to prevent an instant spike in gold and silver prices. This delay will give the world the weekend to consider appropriate actions rather than have a knee-jerk reaction which could see the U.S. Dollar totally collapse in value Monday.

According to this Senior source, China told the U.S. delegation they no longer have faith in U.S. Currency for several reasons: 1) The Federal Reserve Bank ceased publishing "M3" data in March, making it nearly impossible for anyone to know how much cash is being printed. China said this act made it impossible to tell how much a Dollar is worth.

2) The U.S. Dollar has lost upwards of thirty percent (30%) of its value against other foreign currencies in the recent past, meaning China has lost almost $300 Billion simply by holding U.S. Dollars in its reserves.

3) The U.S. has no plans whatsoever to reduce deficit spending or ability pay down any of its existing debt without printing money to pay it off.

For these reasons China has decided to implement an aggressive sell-off of U.S. Dollars before the rest of the world does so. China reportedly told the US delegation; "we are the largest holder of U.S. Currency and if the rest of the world unloads theirs before we unload ours, we will lose our shirts."

Early this week, in an unusual move, the Bush administration sent virtually the entire economic "A-team" to visit China for a "strategic economic dialogue" in Beijing Dec. 14 and 15.

Treasury Secretary Henry Paulson and Federal Reserve Chairman Ben Bernanke lead the delegation, along with five other cabinet-level officials, including Secretary of Commerce Carlos Gutierrez. Also in the delegation is Labor Secretary Elaine Chao, Health and Human Services Secretary Mike Leavitt, Energy Secretary Sam Bodman, and U.S. Trade Representative Susan Schwab.

The Bush administration wanted to get China's cooperation in preventing a dollar collapse. The Hal Turner Show has been told the effort failed.

According to the source, Fed Chairman Bernanke left the meeting "pale and in a cold sweat" as the implications of China's decision seemed to sink in.

The implications are enormous: The U.S. Dollar is likely to collapse in value against all other major currencies as early as Monday, December 18.

This would cause a worldwide sell-off of dollars, create almost immediate "hyper-inflation" in the US and also impact world markets at a level "worse than the Great Depression of 1929."

Arabs to the rescue?

In a strange twist of fate, Arabs and OPEC may come to the rescue of the U.S.!

Senior officials in OPEC made clear that they too would be severely harmed if the U.S. Dollar collapsed, and hinted they "would not be inclined to sell oil to any particular nation that intentionally caused such a collapse."

This was a thinly veiled threat to China, which depends heavily on OPEC oil for its rapidly developing energy needs.

The OPEC officials even went so far as to say "Since China lacks the ability to project their military power, OPEC nations need not worry about any Chinese military response to an oil cut-off."

Such brutally candid remarks will not sit well with China; and signal ominous things for the U.S.

Arabs and OPEC will want something in return for saving the U.S. from economic collapse and it is already widely speculated what they want will be a complete change in U.S. backing of Israel in the Middle East.

If such demands are made by the oil-rich Arabs, the U.S would be left with little choice but to virtually abandon the Jewish state to preserve itself.

UPDATE - 10:18 PM 12-14-6
The Washington Post confirms. . . 'US, China Clash On Currency'

UPDATE - 12:07 AM EST
Saturday, December 16, 2006:

Additional sources, one in the U.S. Commerce Department and another in the US Treasury have confirmed the initial report above and referred me to another, Third, source in the Pentagon.

Both the Commerce and Treasury Sources report that while China will not be able to simply trade their Dollars for other paper currencies, they will spend their U.S. Cash on commodities such as gold, silver and Rhodoium as well as military hardware; ships and planes, placing large orders and paying for those orders with the one point one trillion in cash dollars they possess.

Extreme Military Concern - In speaking with the contact at the Pentagon, I am able to now report the Pentagon views this currency-killing as a cunning military aspect to Chinese plans:

The Pentagon says that while China has a 2 Million man army, they lack the logistics and heavy lift capability to move that army and supply it. They can, however, get that military to South Korea and to Japan.

The Chinese see that the U.S. Military is over-stretched and almost exhausted by its globe trotting Commander-In-Chief. They feel that by intentionally destabilizing the dollar, the U.S. economy will fail, putting tens of millions of Americans on the unemployment line and putting unbearable pressure on the US Government.

Then, with the U.S. economy in shambles and its manufacturing base eroded by a steady stream of manufacturing plants moving out of the US., the American government will be too occupied with troubles at home to do much internationally. America will be in no position to challenge China, allowing the Chinese to act militarily elsewhere in the world;

Further, if the U.S. attempted to intervene against any Chinese military action, the only plant in the world which can manufacture the specialized gyros needed for U.S. Cruise Missile guidance systems, is now located in. . .China.

China could prevent that plant from shipping to the U.S., and once our arsenal of cruise missiles was depleted, it would take a long time to re-tool a plant to make more gyros and re-supply cruise missiles for battle. The Chinese feel they could accomplish certain military goals before the U.S. could re-tool. They are also confident the U.S. will never "go nuclear" as long as the U.S. itself is not attacked.

The Pentagon source went so far as to say "Even if China was to lose the entire one trillion in cash to a collapse of the Dollar as a currency, they will have succeeded in taking the U.S. off the world stage as any type of effective military or economic power -- without firing a shot!" A 'classic' Sun Tzu paradigm of victory - the art of fighting, without fighting.

The crippling of the US is a highly desirable military benefit for China at a relatively cheap price since it will leave their human capital and infrastructure assets in place; assets they know they would lose if a hot war erupted with the US.

The Dollar's Full-System Meltdown

By Mike Whitney
October 30, 2006

Information Clearing House -- --
The U.S. Dollar is kaput. Confidence in the currency is eroding by the day.

A report in The Sydney Morning Herald stated, "Australia's Treasurer Peter Costello has called on East Asia's central bankers to 'telegraph' their intentions to diversify out of American investments and ensure an 'orderly adjustment'....Central banks in China, Japan, Taiwan, South Korea, and Hong Kong have channeled immense foreign reserves into American government bonds, helping to prop up the US dollar and hold down interest rates," said Costello, but 'the strategy has changed.'"

Indeed, the strategy has changed. The world has come to its senses and is moving away from the green slip of paper that is currently mired in $8.3 trillion of debt.

The central banks now want to reduce their USD reserves while trying to do as little damage to their own economies as possible. That'll be difficult. If a sell-off ensues, it will start a stampede for the exits.

There's little hope of an "orderly adjustment" as Costello opines; that's just false optimism. When the greenback begins listing; things will turn helter-skelter quickly.

In September, we saw early signs that the dollar was in trouble. The trade deficit registered at $70 billion but the Net Foreign Security Purchases (NFS) came in at a paltry $33 billion. That means that our main trading partners are no longer buying back our debt which puts downward pressure on the greenback. The Fed had two choices; either raise interest rates substantially or let the currency fall. Given the tenuous condition of the housing bubble and the proximity of the midterm elections, the Fed did neither.

A month later, in October, the trade deficit hit $69.9 billion but, then, without warning, a miracle occurred. The Net Foreign Security Purchases skyrocketed to a "historic high" of $116.8 billion; covering both months' shortfalls almost to the penny.

Coincidence?

Not likely. Either the skittish central banks decided to "stock up" on their dollar-denominated investments or the Federal Reserve (and their banking-buddies) is buying back its own debt to float us through the elections.

This is exactly the kind of hanky-panky that people expected when Greenspan stopped publishing the M-3 last March keeping the rest of us in the dark about what was really going on with the money supply.

Are we supposed to believe that the skeptical central banks suddenly doubled up on their T-Bills while they're (publicly) moaning about the dollar's weakness and threatening to diversify?

That's a stretch.

According to the Wall Street Journal the Chinese Central-bank governor Zhou Xiaochuan stated unequivocally that "We think we've got enough." The Chinese presently have nearly $1 trillion in USD and US Treasuries.

"Enough"?

The United States runs a $200 billion per year trade deficit with China. If they've "got enough" we're dead-ducks. After all, it doesn't take a sell-off to kill the dollar, just unwillingness on the part of the main players to stop purchasing at the same rate.

Of course, everyone in Washington already knew that doomsday was approaching. That's the way the system was designed from the very beginning. It's all part of the madcap scheme to "starve the beast" and transfer the nation's wealth to a handful of western plutocrats. That's explains why the Fed and the White House whirled along like two spokes on the same wheel; every policy calculated to thrust the country headlong toward disaster.

The administration never created a funding mechanism for the $400 million tax cuts or for the 35% expansion of the Federal government. Defense spending increased by leaps and bounds as did the "no-bid" contracts for friends of the Bush clan. At the same time, interest rates were lowered to rock-bottom to put as much money as possible into the hands of people who couldn't meet the traditional criteria for a mortgage. And, if gluttonous waste, reckless overspending and "Mickey Mouse" loans were not enough; the Fed capped it off by doubling the money supply in 7 years; a surefire prescription for hyper-inflation.

So, which one of these policies was not deliberate?

The financial crisis that we now face was created by design. It is intended to destroy the labor movement, crush the middle class, quash Medicare, Medicaid and Social Security, reduce our foreign debt by 50 or 60%, force a restructuring of America's debt, privatize all public assets and resources, and create a new regime of austerity measures which will divert more wealth to the banking and corporate establishments.

The avatars of neoliberalism invariably use crooked politicians to spawn enormous "unsustainable" debt so that the nations' riches can be transferred to ruling elites. It works the same everywhere. It's a form of corporate colonization, only this time the victim is the good old USA.

"The Phase of Impact"

According to Richard Daughty in his prescient article "The Phase of Impact" the Federal Reserve and the Treasury Dept have already manned the battle-stations. Here's an excerpt: "Mr. Paulson, the Secretary of the Treasury, is, by virtue of his ascension to the throne, now the head of the shadowy President's Working Group of Financial Markets (which was created by Presidential Order 12631) and he is insisting that they meet more often, namely every 6 weeks!"

This whole Working Group thing was originally set up as a fallback, ad-hoc, if-then defense to deal with possible economic emergencies, but now they are routinely meeting every 6 weeks. He has even ordered Jim Wilkinson, his chief of staff, to 'oversee the creation of a Treasury Command Center to track markets world-wide and serve as an operations base in a crisis'! (Wall Street Journal) World-wide!! The American government is moving to take control of the world-wide economy as the result of an anticipated crisis? Yikes!"

Daughty goes on to say: "So a lot of the hubbub is obviously being caused by some approaching upheaval, perhaps reflected in something sent to me by Phil S., which is the Global Europe Anticipation Bulletin No8 which reminded us that last May they predicted that the economy would have a 'phase of acceleration' that would begin in June, and it "would be spread out over a period of a maximum of PRELIMINARY NOTE: Our 3rd December posting was severely truncated at about 11.00pm UK time on 5th December by NSA/CIA/Department of Homeland Security. The text of the 'diary' section from November 20th onwards was removed. The Editor restored the text in the middle of the night, and then added appropriately critical comments. Please revisit the posting dated 3rd December as it is directly relevant to what follows. In addition to interfering with our posting dated 3rd December, the above parties REMOVED the entire text of our posting dated 2nd September 2006 entitled: 'NEW: HUGE GLOBAL BENEFITS OF THE WANTA PLAN'.

This posting contained predictions of the 'win-win' benefits of the Wanta Plan, as well as a summary of the extremely adverse consequences if it were not to be implemented (because of the corrupt operations described in successive postings on this website).

THE REASON THAT OUR ECONOMIC ANALYSIS DATED 2ND SEPTEMBER – WHICH WAS APPENDED TO THE POSTING OF 3RD DECEMBER – WAS DELETED, WAS BECAUSE ITS PREDICTIONS HAVE TURNED OUT TO BE ACCURATE. They describe exactly what is happening RIGHT NOW. The Editor has restored both postings, but we urge you to review the 2nd September posting again because a number of appropriately barbed comments have been added there as well.

IN READING WHAT FOLLOWS, NOTE THE FOLLOWING EQUATION:

1. Without the Iraq War, which started as a bank raid, there is no way they can continue hiding the illegal money.

2. Without the $4.5 trillion payment to Ambassador Leo Wanta/his Virginia-based AmeriTrust Groupe, Inc. [see coordinates at foot of article], there is no way they can make use of the illegal monies they have 'earned'.

WHY SR WAS SEEN WEeping ON TV: HE'D JUST LOST TRILLIONS: HIS EMPIRE HAD JUST BEEN DESTROYED BY A NAKED SHORT OP.

We are now in a position to provide the international financial community with a summary of some of the key developments in the dollar crisis, which are not being report in the 'mainstream' media. The crisis, which is now almost certain to become the biggest financial catastrophe in human history, has arisen specifically and solely because the criminal operatives holding past and present high office in the United States thought they could continue their off-balance sheet fiat money scamming operations as though it is 'Business as Usual', and avoid remitting Ambassador Leo Wanta and his Virginia-based AmeriTrust Groupe, Inc., the $4.5 trillion tagged and earmarked in their names, and illegally retained at Goldman Sachs.

Apart from the $1.0 trillion worth of US currency held by the Chinese in their foreign exchange reserves, and lesser amounts held as official reserves with other key central banks, the Ambassador's $4.5 trillion are the 'only' hard dollars cash available. Because of the impact of our last report [3rd December 2006], and in the context of the horrifying developments reported below, and other horrendous developments not reported here, the Chinese cannot even change these dollars into other convertible currencies on the scale that they need to do, if they are not to lose almost the entire value of them, when the US dollar collapses, as is about to happen.

WHAT THESE RECKLESS CRIMINALS HAVE ACTUALLY BEEN DOING Here is what has taken place in recent days. Using the money stolen via the deceitful, fraudulent Treasury 'data burst' of 17th November 2006 as explained in our posting on this website on 3rd December [see ARCHIVE], plus funds that the official US criminal operatives have been siphoning offshore through their fraudulent trading operations, the criminal operatives (who are named below) ALSO borrowed against CREDIT DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS, creating a pool of funds with which to buy US dollars and sell the EU Collective Currency, with a view to taking the profits (usually ranging between 10% and 15%) between the values.

The resulting profit pool was being run by Deutsche Bank in Berlin, Geneva and Frankfurt and was being used to drive down the overall valuations of UBS, Credit Suisse and key French banks – the objective being to create such profound economic and financial problems for these banks that their valuations would be reduced to such a marked extent that Deutsche Bank, in particular, could then buy them up cheaply.

This confirms our own suspicions, which have become clearer in recent months, that the Swiss institutions, have understood the geopolitical objectives of Deutsche Bank, which is allegedly the primary institution used by Deutsche Verteidigungs Dienst (DVD), Dachau, in craven pursuit of its Nazi Continuum global hegemony strategy. The Pan-German Nazis appear to have become rather disillusioned with the Swiss instinct for eternal independence, and the Swiss institutions have become aware of long-range German strategic intentions with respect to Switzerland's prized and ancient political independence.

ARTIFICIAL NAKED SHORT POSITION AGAINST THE U.S. DOLLAR A very senior European banker, well known to Ambassador Wanta and to Michael C. Cottrell, the Treasurer of AmeriTrust Groupe, Inc, strenuously warned the criminal operatives concerned (see below) not to create AN ARTIFICIAL NAKED SHORT AGAINST THE US DOLLAR by

The American's Bulletin is the newspaper- forum for the sovereign American people, who are fed-up with the tyranny, the fraud of taxes, the violation of their un-a-lien-able Rights, the National Emergency, the compelled performance of the pledge of their property... who want the truth! The American's Bulletin remains the only America First, Truth Exposing, Wake-up and Smell the Coffee, Free Press Newspaper for the sovereign American people in this Country TODAY!

using borrowed money for the purpose – i.e., naked gambling the integrity of the dollar: but these madmen went ahead with this scheme anyway. The European banks, being no fools, figured out what they were up to; and when Ambassador Wanta was again NOT PAID the $4.5 trillion on 20th November 2006, the European banks took immediate action to dump their dollars on a large scale.

When a gambler undertakes a NAKED SHORT, he loses BOTH the money contributed for the gamble AND the money borrowed as well. In other words, a NAKED SHORT gambler LOSES TWICE HIS MONEY, or far more than that, depending on whatever leveraging input he was using.

And that is what happened, following dissemination worldwide of our posting dated 3rd December 2006. So when George Herbert Walker Bush Sr. was televised weeping at a podium in Florida, guess why he was weeping?

B E C A U S E HE HAD JUST LOST A GOODLY PROPORTION OF THE FIAT 370 TRILLION D O L L A R S THAT HE HAD PREVIOUSLY CONTROLLED, DUE TO THE MINDLESS, RECKLESS NAKED SHORT TRANSACTION.

OFFICIAL U.S. CRIMINAL OPERATIVES WITH RED FACES The perpetrators (culprits) who perpetrated this historically unprecedented coup AND LOST THEIR SHIRTS, leaving the wretched United States and the whole world vulnerable to an imminent meltdown, include the following conspirators:

- President George W. Bush Jr.
- Former President H. W. Bush Sr.
- Former President W J Clinton.
- Senator Hillary Clinton
- John Negroponte, Director of National Intelligence
- General Michael Heyden, Director of Central Intelligence
- Secretary of the Treasury Hank ('Conflict-of-Interest') Paulson
- Federal Reserve Board Chairman Dr Ben S. Bernanke, and key Board Members
- Wachovia Bank/First Union Bank, New York
- Bank of America, Los Angeles
- HSBC, United Kingdom
- The Bank of England
- Deutsche Bank, Frankfurt, Berlin and Geneva.

The conspirators got caught in mid-play, and lost their shirts and trillions upon trillions of dollars, as a direct consequence of our authorised posting dated 3rd December 2006 [see ARCHIVE]. Their NAKED SHORT transaction failed.

WACHOVIA, B of A NOW SAID TO BE TECHNICALLY BANKRUPT While former President George H. W. Bush Sr. wept for himself and on behalf of the DVD, of which he is allegedly the head, before the television cameras, one of the key investigators working with the Ambassador brought in the CIA (under USA Patriot Act etc legislation) to undertake certain measures to stave off the bankruptcy of Wachovia Bank and Bank of America (which is in fact the CIA's main banking arm).

At midnight European time on 5th-6th December, the Bank of Spain and Santander Bank agreed to get their representatives together in Geneva, with representatives of the Federal Reserve and, it is believed, the Treasury. The purpose of the gathering was to be 'work out' means of enabling the Federal Reserve, the Treasury and key US institutions to 'stay solvent'.

On 6th December, the Boards of Directors of Wachovia Bank and Bank of America met to plan a merger, but essentially only agreed to agree to come to a decision. They may have no time even to prepare the relevant documents before their respective roofs fall in. Tiles were already crashing to the ground all day on the 6th.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET FUNDS MATERIALISE AT SANTANDER BANK Meanwhile, ALL OF A SUDDEN, funds appeared from OFF THE BOOKS (please make a note of this, in view of what follows) at Santander Bank, which were available to collateralise a transaction through Union Bank of Switzerland and Credit Suisse ostensibly to facilitate payment of the $4.5 trillion to Ambassador Leo Wanta, via a syndication of large banks consisting of Bank of America, Wachovia Bank and J. P. Morgan, to be arranged by Banco de Espana (Central Bank of Spain). This crazy bank syndication is being put together 'as we speak'.

According to European bankers who are in a position to gauge the situation accurately, the reverberations of the NAKED SHORT catastrophe will hit the United States this Friday, 8th December 2006.

The syndication arrangement is being put together in extremis and under duress by the conspirators, in order to save their backsides and all other parts of their anatomies. They choose to overlook the fact that the Ambassador/AmeriTrust Groupe, Inc, are the only parties on

A LITTLE HISTORY

November 16, 2006

I, Ron Rockwell, started as a machinist with Martin Missile Company through Universal Specialties, building rocket components, and going through school and further training. Then meeting Royal Raymond Rife and John F. Crane in 1964 and working with them in their laboratory as their machinist. Upon developing a brain tumor in 1973 and having it cured with the RPG-900 has saved my life so I could continue this work with Rockwell Research, L.L.C. Upon Rife and Crane’s deaths I inherited the original equipment from that laboratory. Then I met Haskell Karl by an introduction through Carla Stevens a few years ago. Haskell Karl told me about the original working air turbine story. It was built in the 60’s and tested at Wyle testing laboratory, and they could not figure out how it worked. Then it was scheduled to be shown to President Kennedy at a special meeting. It did not come about as the people working on it had disappeared along with the original working proto-type. After many long sessions talking with Haskell Karl as he told me about this air turbine, showing me original drawings and photos and documents, and how he had been looking for someone to rebuild it, I decided to take on this challenge. I re-designed and built this advanced aerodynamic air turbine engine, with full aerospace technology as we know it today. And it does not run on a compressed air tank, it runs on ambient air and runs on its own. And with its benefits, would eliminate the need for fossil fuels, and would become a totally new power source. All of what I mentioned can be seen and heard on the web at; www.rifecranerockwell.com. A new web page be up as soon as possible.

7. COLLECTIVELY, THESE DEVELOPMENTS REFLECT THE ANXIETY OF THE GROUP OF EIGHT [G-8] COUNTRIES TO STRAIGHTEN OUT THE CATASTROPHIC MESS THAT MR PAULSON ET AL HAVE CREATED, GIVEN THAT THEIR FINANCIAL OPERATIONS HAVE (AS WE PREDICTED) NOW BROUGHT THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL SYSTEM TO THE BRINK OF AN IMPLOSION AND MELTDOWN.

‘Engine’

Editorial comment; My first impression when both speaking with Mr. Rockwell and reading the Press release was; ‘of course not!’ The federal government is not going to be interested in such new found technology! Their program is subjugation, filling the prisons; now 7 million strong, perpetuating WAR, expending over 300 Billion on Iraq, sacrificing over 3000 of America’s Men & Women in the Army/military as expendable cannon-fodder. All just to satisfy this federal corporations’ thirst for greater power, control and Bush’s twisted agenda. Certainly after all those WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION that were found and the political crimes committed by Saddam Hussein, it was necessary to go to war. Well, as it has been shown, there were no WMD, the so-called Trial of the Ex-leader was a joke, then the expense of the War, the deaths, destruction, eral damage in a war that should have never happened!

But here’s this ‘awesome technology’ that is needed NOW (aside from the fact there is history of mega-corporations buying up carburetors and other gas-saving inventions and the federal government disposing of such items and possibly the inventors) Due the above, the DOE should have said to Mr. Rockwell; “Yes, we want to support you and your engine and we want this engine in use in 6 months to work in almost every automobile and other applications... will 100 million get you going, we’ll give you more later (since it’s only credit!)... oh, and by the way, we don’t want to control it, just get it into production as fast as you can! We need this technology, the people needs jobs, the Country and the World need this engine... lets get going! We’ll be in touch.”

But what was their reply; “there’s a funding problem!” akin to; TAKE A HIKE...OUR AGENDA state action.

Even most of the “alternative” news sites, have barely mentioned the greatest threat to law and order since the time of Lincoln.

Senator Patrick Leahy (D) of Vermont, a leftist socialist I completely disagree with, was the ONLY politician to publicly provide an excellent description of what this change in the law will mean to Americans. He said, “We certainly do not need to make it easier for Presidents to declare martial law.” He went on to say that, “invoking the Insurrection Act and using the military for law enforcement activities goes against some of the central tenets of our democracy. . . .it subverts longstanding posse comitatus statutes that limit the military’s involvement in law enforcement, thereby making it much easier for the President to declare martial law.” He concluded by stating, “We fail our Constitution, and neglect the rights of the states when we make it easier for the President to declare martial law and trample on local and state sovereignty.”

Now if this ultra-liberal leftist Senator gets it, then where does that leave everyone else in the government? Americans who are uninformed, uncaring, complacent, and targets in the sights of militarized police units operating under the control of federal military units or federal Marshals will be in custody quicker than they can say, “What did I do?” Local police will be absorbed overnight into a massive, armed, “cocked and locked” army of enforcers with no will of their own and virtually no choice of their own to do anything except obey orders and subjugate the American public. This will come directly from the President’s office, the Pentagon or the United Nations. It will have the tacit blessing of our elected officials at all levels of governance. This action will be virtually irrevocable when challenged through complicit state and federal courts. Our fate will be locked in the moment martial law is declared. Movement, purchasing necessities, medical treatment, attendance at school and the workplace will be tightly controlled and you will be constantly challenged with the all too well known phrase, “Where are your papers?” WHEN, NOT IF this happens, it will doom this nation to the ranks of failed empires and fulfill the Council on Foreign Relation’s, the United Nations and the Illuminati’s centuries old dreams of conquest.

Our government will have paid the way through our confiscated tax dollars to accomplish this mind-boggling feat. They will have defiled our Constitution and used it for its legislative mandate of police-state authority. Elected officials will have succumbed to the ultimate power fix. Military men and women along with their counterparts in formerly civilian state and local police will have willingly accepted their orders to become the street Kings over their disarmed citizenry. The accomplishment of the greatest coup ever achieved in history over free people will have become reality.

Police officers at all levels have a sworn duty to resist this coming event with all the information, real constitutional authority to resist, and guidance from servants of the public mentality Chiefs and Sheriffs across this nation.

The time is now. This must happen now, if we are to believe that our men and women who wear the badge and have given their oaths will be there at that moment to truly defend us from the criminals who have given the “orders” to arrest the innocent. If our police forces, acting on what they believe is the right thing, ordered by thugs in our government to do the wrong thing, carries out those illegal and freedom killing final orders, then there WILL be bloodshed on a scale not seen in our nation before.

As that drama begins to unfold, as the government becomes the master of all and the people literally become the slaves, then I will abandon my efforts to educate, train and encourage my fellow citizens for peaceful change.

Make no mistake, I will follow in the footsteps of my fore-fathers and join the rest of you in justified armed insurrection. A beast cannot be reasoned with under any circumstances. It must be destroyed. I pray to God that Maynard Brazeal was right when he said that the character of the men and women in uniform will ultimately determine whether we live free or in a police state. I am counting on you, my friends in law enforcement. Please do not let your country down. It will come down to your allegiance to our constitution and your fellow citizens, nothing less. Choose wisely.

6 months’, which it subsequently did. They said then, and are saying again now, that a ‘phase of impact will begin in November 2006’, and that this impact phase would be the ‘explosive phase of the crisis’.

This ‘phase of impact’ that is due to begin momentarily is, they explain, ‘a period when a series of brutal crises starts affecting by contamination the total system. This explosive phase of the crisis, which will last 6 months to one year, will affect directly and very strongly financial players and markets, the owners of investment schemes with fixed incomes in dollars, pension funds and the strategic relations between the United States on the one side, and Europe and Asia on the other.’ (Richard Daughy; “The Phase of Impact” Kitco.com)

Predictions, of course, are rarely reliable and Daughy’s scenario may be a bit too apocalyptic for many. But if we accept the premise that the tax cuts, the expansion of the federal government, the doubling of the money supply, and the $10 trillion that was sluiced into the housing bubble were not merely “honest mistakes” made by “supply side” enthusiasts; then we must assume that this is all part of a loony plan to demolish the economic foundation-blocks of the current system and remake society from the ground up.

Domestically, that plan appears to involve the activation of the police state.

In the last few weeks the Bush administration has passed the Military Commissions Act of 2006 which allows the president to arrest and torture whomever he chooses without charging him with a crime. Also, unbeknownst to most Americans, Bush signed into law a provision which, according to Senator Patrick Leahy, will allow the president to unilaterally declare martial law. By changing The Insurrection Act, Bush has essentially overturned the Posse Comitatus Act which bars the president from deploying troops with the United States. The John Warner Defense Authorization Act of 2007 (as it is called) also allows Bush to take control of the National Guard which has always been under the purview of the state governors. Bush now has absolute power over all armed troops within the country, a state of affairs which the constitution purposely tried to prevent. The administration’s dream of militarizing the country under the sole authority of the executive has now been achieved although the public still has no idea that a coup that has taken place.

Internationally, the falling dollar means that America’s debt will be reduced proportionate to the percentage-loss of the dollar in relation to other currencies. This is a great deal for the U.S. First the Fed prints fiat money to buy valuable resources and manufactured goods and then it nabs a discount by depreciating its currency. It’s a “win-win” situation for Washington, although it will undoubtedly cheat unwitting foreign-creditors out of their hard-earned profits. It’s doubtful that their interests will weigh very heavily on the money-lenders at the US Treasury or the Federal Reserve.

The dollar faces a second crisis at home which is bound to play out throughout 2007. The $10 trillion dollar housing bubble is quickly losing air causing a precipitous drop in GDP. The housing industry is seeing its steepest decline in 30 years and home equity is beginning to shrivel. Housing has been the one bright spot in an otherwise bleak economic landscape. With the housing market slowing down and prices decreasing, the $600 billion of consumer spending which was extracted in 2005 from home equity will quickly evaporate triggering an overall slowdown in the economy. (Consumer spending is 70% of GDP)

By the Fed’s own calculations; “The total amount of residential housing wealth in the US just about doubled between 1999 and 2006 up from $10.4 trillion to $20.4 trillion. (“Times Online”) If these figures are accurate than we can assume that much of America’s “perceived” growth has been nothing more than the expansion of debt. In fact, that seems to be the case. Wages have been stagnant since the 1970s, 3 million manufacturing jobs have been outsourced, savings have shrunk to below 0%, and personal debt is soaring. We have become an “asset-based” society and when the principle asset begins to loose its value, we are in deep trouble. As housing prices continue to decline through 2007 we can expect a full-blown recession. If energy prices rear their ugly head again, (were they lowered for the elections?) it will just be that much worse.

So, how will recession affect the dollar?

Capital has no loyalties. It follows the markets. When America’s bustling consumer market stalls, we’ll undergo capital flight just like everywhere else. The 3 million lost manufacturing jobs, the 200,000 lost high-paying high-tech jobs, the tax incentives for major corporations doing business outside the country; all signal that corporate America has already loaded the boats and is headed for more promising markets in Asia and Europe. A sluggish consumer market could further weaken the dollar and force Americans to begin saving again but, (and here’s the surprising part) the decision-makers at the Federal Reserve and the Treasury Dept don’t really care if the face-value of the greenback goes down anyway.

What really matters is that the dollar retains its position as the world’s reserve currency. That allows the Federal Reserve to continue to print the money, set the interest rates, and control the global economic system. The dollar presently accounts for 66% of foreign currency reserves in central banks across the globe, an increase of nearly 10% in one decade alone. The dollar has become the international currency, a de-facto monopoly. This is the goal of the globalists and the American ruling elite who dream of one system, the dollar-system; with us running it.

So, how will this cadre of plutocrats coerce the other nations to continue to use the dollar while it plummets from its perch?

Oil.

As long as oil is denominated in dollars, the central banks will be forced to stockpile American scrip regardless of its value. It’s no different than holding a gun to someone’s head. They will use our debt-plagued greenbacks or their cars and trucks will sputter, their tractors and factories will wheeze, and their economies will grind to a halt. It’s just that simple.

America cannot maintain its superpower status unless it continues to control the global economic system. That means the linkage between the dollar and oil must be preserved. The Bush troupe sees this as an existential issue upon which the future of America’s ruling class depends. By 2020, 60% of the world’s oil will come from the Middle East. Bush will do everything in his power to control the resources of the Caspian Basin, thereby expanding US dollar-hegemony and paving the way for a new American century.

refused for several months to allow the bar association to collect dues because of its abysmal record in disciplining lawyers.”

If the existence of the bar association hinges on an internal vote of disgruntled bar-association attorneys, complaining about paying dues and disciplining themselves-and could have been abolished in 1885 and 1996--how relevant could the State Bar of California actually be?

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

Regarding the conduct and professional standards of Esquires, there is no state or federal regulatory agency in their America governing such matters. Quoting Oceanside, California Republican Assemblyman Bill Morrow, who sponsored a bill for overhauling and shrinking the Bar in 1998, In the Same LA Times article above: “Morrow said that he is not worried that lawyer discipline will lapse. If no legislative breakthrough is reached by summer, the legislature will simply transfer lawyer discipline to the State Department of Consumer Affairs, the lawmaker said.”

THE NON-EXISTANT OATH OF OFFICE

Cal. B&P 6067 implies that attorneys take oaths of office and that this is printed on “the license.” If you read Section 6067 carefully, these attorneys are not a “member of the State Bar,” but “admitted persons.” Section 6067 is designed to lull the reader into the false believe that attorneys take constitutional oaths of office. Since the license is effectively the bar card-- a credit card sized piece of plastic, and the only text appearing on the bar card of the State Bar of California concerns annual union dues. There is no oath: “This certifies that the person whose name appears on this card has paid the annual fee required by statute.”

So on further analysis, Code Section 6067 reduces to another meaningless entry designed to mislead and distract one from getting closer to the truth.

Editor comment; This all reads like intentional misapplication of statute, fraud, fraud by scienter and then on top of it, if any attorney accepts your so-called money and then fails to perform, or performs so poorly that it causes loss, fine or jail or prison... sounds either like a law suit or more specifically a Tort Claim into State Risk Management for the fraud and commercial theft by their ‘licensed’ agent(s) who don’t have one... but you’re not supposed to know that!

the Spanish-American War, that they could slip the annexation of Hawaii in as a rider to another bill when no one was looking. They needed Hawaii for its strategic position in the pacific, yet Hawaii was not admitted into the union by 2/3rds majority as required by Congress. This plus the fact that the local vote in Hawaii was completely rigged, allowed them to “claim by presumption” Hawaii had chosen to be a part of the United States. The Noe Report of 1898 proves that at least 98% of the true Hawaiian population (Kanaka Maoli) voted against annexation.

The fact that all other nations did nothing to help the Kingdom, with whom they had treaties of friendship, yet did not come to its aid when a rogue element invaded its shores, also implicates them in modern liability for remedy. The fact that it appears that the UN may be party to the lie in 1959, admitting Hawaii as a “state” of the United States, when the U.S. fraudulently reported that Hawaii had “met all requirements of statehood” also implicates them in the fraud as well. Current Senator Daniel Inouye was a real-estate agent back then. Go figure.

Yet consider this; as it is that all nations have basically been corporately gentrified, with commercial agencies masquerading as actual government on all lands, how does a Kingdom from the 1800’s, a government of substance, of the land and for the people, actually address remedying the unresolved issues of the past? In order to engage in any contract, the actual parties to the contract must be involved. The Kingdom made treaties with governments of substance, so how do we bring these treaty issues to the fore, if those governments are not available for redress? We have “True Government Day”.

True Government Day is a program we have created, which celebrates the anniversary date of the treaty ratification/signing from the 1800’s in each of those nations we are in treaty with. It is a day, celebrated annually, in which the people get directly involved in their “governments” hands-on, and the “governments” do something special for their people, to say thanks for having them in power. In this way, do we have at least one day a year, where the true source of governmental power, the people, as the body polti, “join” with the corporate managers in the modern governments, creating the elements of opportunity to restore actual governments of substance in each of the lands which the Hawaii Kingdom has engaged.

Another reason this “joining” occurs is because it engages a different approach to restoration of proper government. Modern sovereignty movements, who have paid the price with life and livelihood and freedom to get where they are today, approach addressing corporate de-facto governments of fiction with conflict, taking on those corrupt systems and defending their rights. Conventional mindsets in the sovereign community would have you believe you need to fight for your rights. That you should go against the system head-on which seeks to destroy us as we stake our claim. That is the process that has gotten you thus far, and now the foundations exist for a new approach; through cooperative engagement. In our 18 years of research into sovereign systems and those pioneering the fields, we have now concluded that the only thing that will work is an approach of cooperative partnering with the existing systems of control.

As the systems in place are prepared to engage you the private individual in conflict, they are the ones with the courts, cops, and the rules and regulations to back it up. Taking them head on on their battlefield always gives them the advantage. But if you come to them with open arms, saying; “Hey, I’m here to help, what do we need to do?” Then you as the “helpful citizen” now have the advantage. There needs to be at least two parties to create conflict, and if you don’t play their game, no conflict exists.

Approaching modern “government” in this way, we see that the original government system has been designed to be good; it is simply mismanaged. Therefore, instead of “taking it head-on against it” you “show up to help them do their job”, and they cannot defend against that. Add to this the fact that you as the secured private individual, who knows the laws better then they do, lend your knowledge of the system, to help them “correct the mismanaging of the office”, and “facilitate the correction”.

Helping them correct it, you have effectively activated greater accountability, and begun returning the misused power back to where it belongs; yourself as the body polti. You have activated the course correction necessary which will truly effect lasting change. With responsible, knowledgeable private parties to help them “do their job better”,

PEROXIDE

By Becky Ransey of Indiana.

Most of us have used this product for years for certain things. The health benefits of peroxide.

"I would like to tell you of the benefits of that plain little old bottle of 3% peroxide you can get for under $1.00 at any drug store. My husband has been in the medical field for over 36 years, and most doctors don't tell you about peroxide, or they would lose thousands of dollars."

1. Take one capful (the little white cap that comes with the bottle) and hold in your mouth for 10 minutes daily, then spit it out. (I do it when I bathe.) No more canker sores and your teeth will be whiter without expensive pastes. Use it instead of mouthwash. (small print says mouth wash and gargle right on the bottle) (You may to dilute it a bit at first!)

2. Let your toothbrushes soak in a cup of "Peroxide" to keep them free of germs.

3. Clean your counters, table tops with peroxide to kill germs and leave a fresh smell. Simply put a little on your dishrag when you wipe, or spray it on the counters.

4. After rinsing off your wooden cutting board, pour peroxide on it to kill salmonella and other bacteria.

5. I had fungus on my feet for years - until I sprayed a 50/50 mixture of peroxide and water on them (especially the toes) every night and let dry.

6. Soak any infections or cuts in 3% peroxide for five to ten minutes several times a day. My husband has seen gangrene that would not heal with any medicine, but was healed by soaking in peroxide.

8. Fill a spray bottle with a 50/50 mixture of peroxide and water and keep it in every bathroom to disinfect without harming your septic system like bleach or most other disinfectants will.

9. Tilt your head back and spray into nostrils with your 50/50 mixture whenever you have a cold, or plugged sinuses. It will bubble and help to kill the bacteria. Hold for a few minutes then blow your nose into a tissue.

10. If you have a terrible tooth-

It is a little brown bottle no home should be without!

ache and cannot get to a dentist right away, put a capful of 3% peroxide into your mouth and hold it for ten minutes several times a day. The pain will lessen greatly.

11. And of course, if you like a natural look to your hair, spray the 50/50 solution on your wet hair after a shower and comb it through. You will not have the peroxide burnt blonde hair like the hair dye packages, but more natural highlights if your hair is a light brown, faddish, or dirty blonde. It also lightens gradually so it's not a drastic change.

12. Put half a bottle of peroxide in your bath to help rid boils, fungus, or other skin infections.

13. You can also add a cup of peroxide instead of bleach to a load of whites in your laundry to whiten them. If there is blood on clothing, Pour directly on the soiled spot. Let it sit for a minute, then rub it and rinse with cold water. Repeat if necessary.

14. I use peroxide to clean my mirrors with, and there is no smearing which is why I love it so much for this.

I could go on and on. It is a little brown bottle no home should be without! With prices of most necessities rising, I'm glad there's a way to save tons of money in such a simple, healthy manner.

pass on to others who might need to know the benefits of 3% peroxide.

grand finances in his mind disappeared. All he had left was his empty words, his money making ability that wasn't so money making after all. I set up Seminars using my personal funds for his attempt to bring in the funds. After all he always bragged about what a "Money making Son-of-a-Bitch" he was. He pressured me to work harder, blaming any work left undone on me for not typing the paperwork. I stayed up day and night finishing it, it lay on the office counter completed and waited for his proof reading.

He had no where to go, no more contacts to lean on, as he had made so many threats to those around him or worked for him, they either left or didn't want to associate with him anymore. The Evil One; Charles C. Miller threatened to put bullets in anyone (including his own son) who stood in his way to change the banking and judicial system. He threatened to destroy anyone who would dare cross him.

I guess he crossed me, because I left him in September of 2006, after he placed his last threat toward me and my son. I gave in to his fantasy and left him that very day. Try as he might to stop me, I continued to pack my personal things and place them in my son Derek's room. He was following me around the house, begging me to stop these ridiculous acts of picking things up. At one point he stood in my path of the bedroom, I told him if he didn't move to let me pass I would call the police, he moved. I then continued to pack my personal things and place them in Derek's room. He came in screaming and ranting and raving, stating he was not going to allow me to steal his things and would call the police. Well, after I heard this I knew he wouldn't call the police, because that would cause him grief with his parole officer, so I decided to leave and go to the office for the night, where I had stayed many times before, during upsets. The next morning he arrived ranting and raving once again, and told me to leave or he would call the landlord and have me removed. Who is he going to call? His only other felon buddy? I think not. Anyway I called his bluff and left after picking up a few of my personal expensive medical equipment pieces. My nerves were at their end, and with my heart being weakened from a previous thyroid episode, I thought it best to come back later. So I went back and called Don, (the Evil Ones brother) to help me move my motor home, so I could have my pick up at the same time. I moved outside of town a few miles from the house.

Licensing Requirements Causes Censorship And Endangerment In The HealthCare System

freedom@harshasankar.org
December 8, 2006

In Roanoke, Virginia $100,000 was paid to lawyers by physicians practicing at a local hospital. This definitely highlights the desperate need for reform. That fee, bribe or extortionate, is an affront to those who create value.

This healthcare system is rife with fee-gouging, fraud, concealment, and endangerment. 20 million unnecessary antibiotics are prescribed annually for viral infections, 7.5 million unnecessary procedures medical procedures are performed, 8.9 million people are unnecessarily hospitalized, and 800,000 iatrogenic deaths occur annually.

Many ethically-concerned doctors have been indirectly silenced by the FDA, PACs, and licensing boards. Government should not license occupations. Free people should not have to procure permission to ply a legal trade. Yet many professionals/trades-people take arduous examinations to see if the incumbency, with the power of law, deems them acceptable. Only the result/approval and not the examination is disclosed.

This ensures that the line "will be toed" with lucrative incentives.

All this is predicated on the legal system. Government must be divided for this unwarranted politicization and aristocratization to cease. Ban judicial purveyors from office.

One had also stolen my fresh water pearls.

On the 11th of October, I was set to leave, and I called Sharon Gustavson to care for my dog, while I was away regrouping, and she agreed. She only agreed because her and the Evil One put her cross bred mutt and my registered Mini Schnauzer together and allowed them to bred before I was aware of the circumstances or the dog she had, as they had preplanned to deceive me once again.

All was quiet for a few weeks, until I came back to get a few things from my storage and pick up my dog Whisper. Sharon was obviously a mental case, as she accused me of all sorts of things and shouted she gave my dog to the Evil One. I later found out it was true and my dog ended up having puppies at the Evil Ones house, some left to die, as there was no one to whelp the pups. Again the police did nothing to help me, they are only interested in the Evil One and to be sure he continues in his crimes.

I had to go back to my safe haven and soon filed charges against Charles C. Miller and Sharon Gustavson for: Extortion/ Fraud, Larceny/Theft, Possession of Stolen Property, Slander, Mental and Emotional Abuse . These charges were filed in Reno, NV on November 28, 2006, Case No CV06-02813. Miller was served on the 18th of December by Reno Police Department.

In the mean while I have received mail from my company 'Reification Group LLC' containing some really sensitive information. Documents regarding 41 million dollar bankruptcy that involved Paul Keppel of North Carolina. And yes, I have been threatened by him as well, for exposing their little games of deceit. The little boys can't seem to hide their tails between their legs any more, as they are all about

Wesley Snipes, actor, speaks out with The Orlando Sentinel

The Truth Radio.com Interview With The Panamanian Attorney Gets: "Noticed"

BLOG
From: The Orlando Sentinel.
Snipes' side of the story
Nov 21, 2006

As mentioned in today's column, action star Wesley Snipes finally spoke out about the charges he's facing, that he tried to evade paying millions of dollars in income taxes.

Background: In short, Snipes has long maintained that he has been an unfair target of multiple court cases and charges. He blames his success and his race for making him a target of people trying to take advantage of him. In one of the cases -- a paternity suit -- the court seemed to validate his claim that it was bogus, by tossing it. The same can't be said, however for the 2003 foreclosure on his $1.7 million Isleworth home. Snipes had argued that someone fraudulently took out a mortgage on the house he had already paid for by forging his name. But he lost the house anyway. He's not completely clear in this week's e-mails about his defense with regards to the tax-evasion charges. In part, you'll see he says he didn't attempt to defraud anyone. But in a follow-up, he directed me to a website that seemed to praise him for willfully refusing to pay income taxes... a tactic that has historically unimpressed the IRS. When he mentions Eddie Kahn, he's referring to a man prosecutors has identified as a co-conspirator in the tax-evasion case. Some of it's still a bit confusing. There's no editing. So you can draw your own conclusions.

(And in case you're wondering, I confirmed the e-mails from this address were actually from Snipes a few years ago when he first contacted me about the foreclosure case. His attorney at the time verified as much.)

Wesley's Email sent Saturday, Nov. 18, 2006 : Hi Scott, guess you can imagine I've been a little busy. Wow this is so crazy, I'm a little shocked at this claim, in light of how much communication has gone back and forth between me and high level government officials. Scott this was almost (10) ten years ago. Why are they coming with this issue now? Were the statutes of limitation running out or what? We thought all issues had been resolved. Guess not huh? Like the situation in New York, and Florida, I know this has more to do with a few individuals with access to power, making moves; trying to move up and less with some alleged crime against the whole population of the United States of America.

This reminds me of Rape cases, where the 'victim' is flipped, turned or converted into the role of victimizer, the 'architect conspirator'. It appears I'm to be the scapegoat, because there's more public interest in "celebrities gone bad," than rich people being taken advantage of.

Being a black male who asks questions doesn't help the situation either. But this is a serious issue, NO, a very serious issue that I am not taking lightly one bit. I will abide by the law, seek the protections the law affords me and as always seek the advice of competent council in effort to resolve this issue. I'm not running, I'm not a fugitive despite the misrepresentations in the press. Hell, I was already gone a month or more before the true bill issued. The legal eagles know this stuff but the layman doesn't, so the layman is tricked into believing something that isn't true with sound devices or cues that influence his beliefs and sway his opinion. The movie industry does this all the time. We call it a "preview trailer." Even if information presented is a lie, the resulting "sales" prove the techniques effectiveness. What is true, is that the people who need to be doing the talking, ARE TALKING. NO HOSTILITIES, the climate is very positive.

I have yet to tell my side of the story, but that time will come shortly. By the Will of the Most High, and boy what a story. I recall mentioning to you once before when they were trying to steal the Florida house, it's a lot deeper than that! This is the second attempt after the failure in New York with that paternity lie they've come after me. You should believe there's a lot more to this story and lot more going on behind the scenes than people could ever imagine. I've injured no one, I've violated no ones rights and (as far as I know) I owe no one. If I have violated someone, then I'm prepared to seek forgiveness and make amends. One is an artist and scholar seeking truth though diligent study and spiritual practice. Perhaps people like that have now become the enemy of the State and 'Trading with the enemy' is dangerous business no matter who you are.

In peace and in Light I only ask for your prayers. Until then stay well, If you have to print this, print the whole thing, without typos of course. This was written to you for you.

Wesley is right! There is actually no law requiring Americans to pay taxes! 99.999% of Americans are still not aware of this fact. Such information is available and hopefully more people will start standing up to the IRS and the private bank called the Federal Reserve! See the movie; America; from freedom to fascism!

bust gossip endlessly searched for the police record; but, not surprisingly, it's nowhere to be found. The truth and evidence about the bust might never be found, just another example of government smoke and magic mirrors; where, the incident could've happened or could've not happened; it all depended on who had something to gain by exposing or concealing it from the public. Be assured that any record is like an insurance policy, assuring the Governor's agendas are fulfilled, as instructed.

As far as the loss of millions of the City of Wasilla's funds: Not a problem. The moneys a drop in the bucket for the State of Alaska; perhaps Federal Man Frank (Frank Murkowski) hit-up his federal buddies in D.C., for a "journal entry and wire transfer favor" from one of the plethora of secret CAFR accounts, just to cover the losses from the trespassing adventure that went south on them, of course!

Palin is young, beautiful, and vibrant and will be looked upon by the People as hope. Alaskan's were fed up with "Frank", beginning when he left D.C. as Senator. So, there was no better time than now to pull Palin out of the federal employee pool and into the Governorship. Of course, nothing will change; might even get worse; but the People don't understand that.

Is it possible that Palin trespassed and improved that private property of her own volition; or, did she just take the fall for it? No matter, she was protected from all negative publicity; and, of course, covered financially for any possible repayment to the City of Wasilla.

I caught glimpse of Palin on the local news; and there was Federal Man Frank standing in her shadow, gaze fixed upon her back; perhaps her new shadow, huh?

Know that Frank's is not going anywhere; and won't be far from the Governor's desk and authority; and, every word to the public coming out of Palin's mouth is already edited.

In the end the "changing of the federal guards" had nothing to do with government for you or me.

Lesson is this: Know that you're in dishonor when you go into one of their "corporate proceedings" in protest of their corporations' rules, regulations and statutes. The rules of the corporations are cast in stone; just as the rules of your corporations are. You can cancel or annul membership in their private federal corporations; and, then challenge their jurisdiction and venue. You cannot "sue" them over any of their so-called laws because as a member you have agreed to their jurisdiction and venue!

Once jurisdiction and venue are successfully challenged, there is a wealth of "causes of action" against them. You could file tort claims in the one supreme Court for non-disclosure and identity theft, both are big ticket items with the fed's, right now!

Again—Happy New Year!

THE UNMISTAKABLE TYRANNY PROJECT

This project aims to reconcile the difference between what our Congressman, US Senators, US Presidents, history books, and media commentators over the first 150 years or more of our Nations history have said regarding the meaning of the Second Amendment to the U.S. Constitution versus what U.S. Federal Judges are now claiming. Is this Amendment conferring an individual Right to the People, or is it granting a "collective right" to the States and NO RIGHTS whatsoever to the People to possess Arms? Please contribute to this project by writing ALL the U.S. Senators and Congressmen from your Sate and ask them this question:

I need to know if you understand that the Second Amendment to the U. S. Constitution confers an Individual Right to the People to possess Arms or Firearms as individuals, or do you believe that this Amendment is only about a "collective right" granted to the States?

Please send their reply letter, or a GOOD QUALITY COPY (preferably color) to: N. David Somerville, c/o P.O. Box 940, Worthington, OH 43085

Your reply will be used as evidence to resolve this question. Anyone who already has a letter from a U.S. Congressman or a U.S. Senator which clearly states that the Second Amendment confers an Individual Right to the People is urgently requested to send a GOOD QUALITY COPY of that letter to the address above. Please do your part to contribute to this project to restore the Rights granted to the People. Your efforts benefit all the People. Thank you for your Patriotism.

you may soon find that they are caught up in the circumstances of the system designed to destroy life instead of support it. Often their intentions were good when they began, yet they were powerless to “do their job” when they got in.

How do we apply this when the Kingdom deals with the modern United States, and the fact that over 150 years of its destiny has been stolen from it? Its nation and people have been continually genocided for generations, and the capitalistic mentality of the average U.S. Citizen is one of; “The world owes us, for what we have done for it.”. We have an interesting situation.

The actual policy of the Kingdom of Hawaii is not to engage the U.S. in conflict, but facilitate the causing of it to “do its job”. The Kingdom knows it is not the modern citizen which committed the crimes over a century ago. Most don’t even know that Hawaii is still a Kingdom. So it does not have a grievance to redress with them. What it does realize (through investigation and observation) is that even the modern-day U.S. Corporation is not particularly against the Kingdom returning into power. In fact, His Majesty has recently come across the mindset of; “Whatever the king wants.” from more than one state, court or federal U.S. official.

Therefore, when looking at this situation not with the eyes of conflict, but with the eyes of opportunity, we see multitudes of possibility to “do the right thing.” It is not the Kingdom’s job to straighten up the State of Hawaii. Since the State of Hawaii is a sub corporation of the United States, which itself is a sub-corporation of the Crown of England, and the Crown of England is the asset manager for the Holy Roman Empire (the Vatican), it is not His Majesty’s job to facilitate the correction of foreign agents residing on his soil. His job is to make sure that the parent corporations do their job, and straighten up their own officers. This includes both governmental and the developer/real estate communities who think they “own” everything. It is the King’s job to notice all parties to the still active state (treaty) contracts, and facilitate their obligations and duties so imbued.

All this begins with the Kingdom of Hawaii addressing the most substantial entity which has committed the greatest fraud upon it; the United States. Since His Majesty must find the “actual parties to the contract” regarding the treaties from the 1800’s, he has to now “discover” those parties again. The closest thing to a government of substance in America right now is most of you who are reading this article; the secured private individual on the land.

Therefore, at some point in time, the King of Hawaii will be sending out a Call to you, the private secured individuals of America, to help him help you. Realize that His Majesty is not in (treaty) contract with the governments of nations, he is in contract with the people of those nations, to uphold their welfare as would an honorable leader of state. The Kingdom has never forsaken its obligations of state. Therefore, in keeping with the five Treaties of Friendship, Commerce and Navigation Hawaii has with the united states of America, he shall endeavor to uphold and preserve the welfare of you, the private individual domiciled in North America. As His Majesty sees you are enslaved by a foreign corporate construct masquerading as your government, it is now time to engage the processes necessary for you to break the shackles of commercial confinement.

It is only together that this shall be done. Likewise, when His Majesty requires a movement in law in your own republic, your combined engagement with the Kingdom greatly multiplies the effect it is achieving. As His Majesty helps the current corporation to do its job, and it has the support of the body polti, he brings their issues forward to address. Being a foreign head of state that your country is now obligated to remedy its redress, places the current system in the perfect capacity of obligation. Individually you can do so much, but when a Sovereign Head of State requiring remedy may take your issues and grievances into the proper venues, and make it part of the Kingdom of Hawaii case, then obligations of state, as outlined in your own constitution, i.e. “treaties are the supreme law of the land”, mandate remedy.

When these same issues are brought into the UN, the Hague and BIS, then the U.S. being commercially obligated, finds itself in a unique situation; on the one hand, it has incredible liability regarding this, and because of your current administration’s imbalanced empirical conduct among states, it has very few friends. Therefore, it is the Kingdom of Hawaii which may be the mediating party for the U.S. to remedy its current dilemma worldwide. So gather your grievances, oh private secured individuals on the land of North America, the King needs them to bring forward those issues which shall restore your nation into its right state again.

This brings to mind the real reason why the U.S. lend a hand in the invasion of 1893 upon the innocent lands and peoples of paradise; it was to interweave the destinies of the greatest physical nation, America, with the greatest spiritual one, Hawaii. If Hawaii and the United States partnered together to make the world a better place, it would surely create a sweeping movement of honor and aloha across all lands, restoring true governments and natural resources back into balance. That would be a sight to see. On the web; www.freehawaii.org.

Akahi Nui, King of Hawaii

V is for Victory... right?
Not with Mortgages...
“V” is for Victim or Loser

The simple truth is that most borrowers are victims of predatory lending. The average American ‘Home-owner’ is overpaying $150,000.00 on a typical 30 year mortgage! Americans are losing $-trillions to unfair and deceptive lending practices, mortgage companies and banks!

Is there an easy way for the average unsophisticated borrowers to Turn the Legal Tables on Predatory Lenders? YES! First, through an appointment for Co3M’s Truth-in-Lending Audit™... available FREE for a limited time only.

If your free Truth-in-Lending Audit™ uncovers serious non-disclosure violations, accounting “errors,” fraud and other schemes of ‘unjust enrichment,’ you will be referred to EquityShield USA, Co3m’s national network of consumer law attorneys who specialize in predator mortgage lenders, who work on contingency and who have a 98% success rate!

Settlements and jury awards can be in the millions, including reconveyance of title free & clear!

American homeowners are waking up to the power of Truth-in-Lending Audit™... ARE YOU? Find out the truth of your mortgage and if it’s a BAD one, do something about it today! Don’t be a Loser!

the stage owning legitimate money. All other parties are dealing in illegitimate fiat ‘funny’ money which is derivatives-based, collateralised, and hypothecated out to infinity.

DERIVATIVES OVERHANG ESTIMATEDAT$1,140TRILLION While it is complacently alleged by some that the volume of derivatives contracts outstanding is worth anything from $370 trillion (the volume putatively owned before the NAKED SHORT fiasco by George Bush Sr. (DVD)), and other estimates put the derivatives overhang at around $770 trillion, the actual volume of the overhang is estimated by the Ambassador and Mr Cottrell as being of the order of $1,140 trillion.

However since these transactions are untaxed and handled off-balance sheet, there is no way to prove the aggregate amount outstanding. The entire derivatives ‘Ponzi Game’ pyramid is now at risk, and in any case, only those in at the base of the pyramid have a melting icicle’s chance in hell of ever getting paid.

And hell is where we are all now headed, thanks to the rampant, uncontrolled criminality of the perpetrators listed above, their criminalised intermediary associates, and the corrupt banks which thought the music would never stop.”

greed and deceit and will stop at nothing to get it. I write this letter as a notice to others who might be tempted to engage Charles C. Miller and again for my protection and to expose those that need to be exposed for what they really are.

I have now been informed that some who may have attended Charles C. Miller’s recent symposium in New Hampshire (November ?) having paid for services have not received anything from Mr. Miller.

Charles C. Miller was severed a copy of my complaint on Monday, December 18, 2006 and on December 20th, Mr. Miller was arrested and temporarily released sometime later. I understand that a hearing has been set in Seattle, Washington and Mr. Miller will be attending!

Suggestion; anybody having anything to do with Mr. Miller; RUN LIKE HELL AWAY FROM HIM! Or you may face similar consequences.

My only question to any one attending or having a desire to attend any Symposium sponsored by Charles C. Miller or Marcia Willardson/Dorr, regarding the Republic would be to ask one thing. Ask them to give you their success stories. Produce even one success or testimony from even one person. You will find none, they will say the success is in the learning. My success; is now knowing a liar, thief and cheat and how to steer clear of them, as I continue to fight my personal battles to get out of the mess, and warrants that stand against me in Oregon. Thanks to the Evil Ones delivery of many words being spoken; but nothing being said. My legal documents being written come out as blanks sheets of paper. And my hope and finances being shattered beyond the grasp of being regained.

The Evil One and his co-horts need to go back home to the only place they can perform their deeds of damage safe behind Charlie C. Miller’s prison bars of success.

● ● ●

Editor’s comment; I felt it necessary and had to send two mailings, one certified and one with delivery confirmation to Mr. Miller along with a copy of Ms. Tapperts affidavit, asking Mr. Miller to rebut it, as he is very capable. However, Mr. Miller has failed to respond or rebut Ms. Tappert’s affidavit, even before this printing. I have also been informed that he has failed to respond to or rebut anything in regards to this matter. If this isn’t bad enough, I am told that there are four to six other people Mr. Miller has ripped off, into the thousands of dollars, for service not rendered. I understand other affidavits are coming forward in this matter. The above article is supported by affidavit and speaks for itself. All we can say is that you are now forewarned as to the gross dishonor, if not crimes committed by one Mr. Charles C. Miller to the injury of others as well as to Ms. Tappert.

PRISONER SUBSCRIPTION POLICY

The American's Bulletin will establish a subscription for any incarcerated 'person' at any county, State, or federal facility! However, we must ask you to help cover the expenses, even though you are incarcerated. We require that you mail in 18 - .39 cent stamps (or any combination) to cover each issue/ publication. If your 'Bulletin' comes back, your 'sub' will be placed on hold, until further contact by you, with new address.

Either the 'prisoner' or his/her family may mail stamps, or remit the full payment of $40.00 for a 6 issue -1 year prisoner subscription. We need communication from you as to change of address, status, release, etc. Prison subscriptions ends on release. TAKE NOTICE - Some prisoners have been denied the 'Bulletin' because it has been tagged 'CONTRABAND,' and/ or that "this newsletter disrupts order of facility!" Yes, Truth, facts and law could do just that! Are Prisons violating the First Amendment?

NOTE; Special programs, free book offers, etc. do not apply to those who are incarcerated, due to the bare costs of a prisoner subscription and the additional costs that we would have to expend. Our prayer is this 'paper' will help bring you awareness, knowledge, hope and encouragement, and a remedy and that someday you'll be released.

SORRY, WE CANNOT SEND 'FREE' SAMPLE COPIES TO THOSE WHO ARE INCARCERATED- PLEASE SEND STAMPS!

NOTE; As it applies to some prisoners who can only have a government check sent in to order books and materials, those checks are accepted at the 'Bulletin' for book orders! Please have those checks made out to The American's Bulletin. Thank you!

P.S. DO NOT STICK OR GLUE ‘POSTAGE STAMPS’ TO PAPER SHEET THAT CANNOT BE REMOVED AND USED!
